PHILADELPHIA.

The following ACT, paſſed the laſt Seſſion of PARLIAMENT, is thought proper to be publiſhed, for the Information of the Public.

Anno Regni tertio GEORGII III. REGIS.

An ACT for the further Improvement of His Majeſty's Revenue of Cuſtoms; and for the Encouragement of Officers making Seizures; and for the Prevention of the clandeſtine Running of Goods into any Part of His Majeſty's Dominions.

WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt, intituled, "An Act for the Improvement of His Majeſty's Revenues of Cuſtoms, Exciſe, and Inland Duties," the Commiſſioners of thoſe Revenues are reſpectively impowered and directed to cauſe all Tea, Coffee, foreign Brandy, Rum, or other foreign exciſeable Liquors, which ſhall be ſeized by any Officers of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, after Condemnation, to be publicly ſold to the beſt Bidder, at ſuch Places as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think proper; and to allow the Officers making ſuch Seizures, for their Encouragement, One Third Part of the full Sum ariſing from the public Sale of all ſuch Tea, Coffee, foreign Brandy, Rum, or other exciſeable Liquors, free from all Charges of Condemnation and Sale; and to cauſe the remaining Part of the Produce of ſuch Sales, after paying the Reward to the Officer, and the Charges of Condemnation and Sale for ſuch Seizures, to be paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, in Lieu of His Majeſty's Moiety, as was then practiſed: And whereas by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts of Parliament, One Moiety of all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, impoſed by any Act relating to the Duties of Exciſe, or any other Duty under the Management of the Commiſſioners of that Revenue, is given to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them who ſhall diſcover, inform, or ſue for the ſame; in Purſuance of which Laws, the Officers of Exciſe ſeizing any of the Commodities herein before enumerated, have been allowed a Moiety thereof; but the Proviſions in thoſe ſubſequent Laws, not extending to ſuch Seizures when made by Officers of the Cuſtoms, they have hitherto been allowed only One Third of the Produce thereof, purſuant to the Directions of the before-recited Act of the Twelfth of GEORGE the Firſt: And whereas the Power given, by the ſaid recited Act, to the reſpective Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe, to cauſe the Goods therein enumerated to be publicly ſold, has been found very advantageous to the Revenue; and if the like Power was extended in general to all Sorts of Goods, it would prevent many Frauds, and illicit Combinations, practiſed by Bidders in the Court of Exchequer, to the great Detriment of the Public Revenue, and the fair Trader: And whereas it is highly reaſonable and juſt, as well as of public Utility, that the Officers of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe ſhould have equal Encouragement to be vigilant in the Exertion of their Duty, to ſuppreſs the pernicious Practice of Smuggling; to which End, May it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of May, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-three, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, to cauſe all Ships, Veſſels, and Boats, and all Goods, of what Kinds ſoever they may be (excepting only ſuch Veſſels, Boats and Goods, as are by Law liable to be burnt) which ſhall be ſeized by any Officers of the Cuſtoms, for unlawful Importation, or for Non-payment of Duties, or for any other Cauſe of Forfeiture, and condemned according to Law, to be ſold publicly to the beſt Bidder, at ſuch Places as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think proper; and all and every Officer who ſhall ſeize ſuch Goods, ſhall, for his and their Encouragement, be allowed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, One Moiety of the Nett Produce ariſing by the Sale of ſuch Seizure, after deducting the Charges of Condemnation and Sale from the whole; and the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall cauſe the other Moiety thereof to be paid into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer, in Lieu of His Majeſty's Share thereof (excepting in thoſe Caſes which are otherwiſe provided for by this Act) any Law, Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That after deducting the Charges of Condemnation and Sale from the groſs Produce of all wrought Silks, Bengals and Stuffs mixed with Silk or Herba of the Manufacture of Perſia, China, or Eaſt-India, and all Callicoes painted, dyed, printed or ſtained there, which ſhall be ſeized and condemned in Purſuance of an Act paſſed in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, "An Act for the more effectual employing the Poor, by encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom," the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms ſhall allow to the Officer or Officers who ſhall ſeize the ſame, Two Third Parts of ſuch Nett Produce, and cauſe the remaining Third Part thereof to be paid into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer; and that for all Wool, and any other of the Species of Goods, enumerated in an Act paſſed in the 12th Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King GEORGE II. intituled, "An Act for taking off the Duties upon Woollen and Bay Yarn, imported from Ireland to England, and for the more effectual preventing the Exportation of Wool from Great-Britain, and of Wool, and Wool manufactured, from Ireland to foreign Parts, after deducting the Charges of Condemnation and Sale, the Remainder of the Produce ſhall be paid to the Officer who ſhall ſeize the ſame, in ſuch Manner as by the ſaid Act is directed; and that for all Tobacco, Tobacco Stalks, and Snuff, which ſhall be burnt or deſtroyed, in Purſuance of an Act paſſed in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second, intituled, "An Act for the more effectual ſecuring the Duties upon Tobacco," the Officer or Officers ſeizing the ſame, ſhall be paid, in the Manner directed by that Act, Three Pence for every Pound Weight of ſuch Tobacco and Snuff, and One Penny for every Pound Weight of Tobacco Stalks; and that for ſuch Tea as ſhall be burnt or otherwiſe deſtroyed, by Order of the reſpective Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, purſuant to the Laws now in being, the Officers making the Seizure, ſhall be rewarded in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think proper, ſuch Reward not exceeding Two Shillings and Six Pence for each Pound Weight of ſuch Tea, in Lieu of all other Allowances; any thing in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Provided alſo, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Produce of any particular Seizure, ſold in Purſuance of this Act, ſhall not be ſufficient to anſwer the Expences of Condemnation and Sale; or if upon the Trial of any Seizure, a Verdict ſhall be given for the Claimant, and the Ship or Goods ſhall not be condemned; in either of thoſe Caſes it ſhall and may be lawful for the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms to order the Charges attending the Seizing and Proſecuting ſuch Ship or Goods, to be paid out of any Branch of the Revenue of the Cuſtoms which is by Law applicable to the Payment of Incidents; any thing in this or any other Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And whereas for the more effectual Prevention of the infamous Practice of Smuggling, it may be neceſſary to employ ſeveral of the Ships and Veſſels of War belonging to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, on the Coaſts of Great-Britain and Ireland, and of the other Dominions and Colonies belonging to the Crown of Great-Britain; therefore for the better Encouragement of all the Officers and Seamen employed in ſuch Service to do their Duty therein, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, to direct and appoint the Moiety herein before mentioned, or any other Part of all and every the Seizure and Seizures that ſhall be made by ſuch Officers or Seamen reſpectively, ſo employed as aforeſaid, to be divided amongſt all ſuch Officers and Seamen of ſuch Ship or Veſſel of War, who ſhall make any ſuch Seizure as aforeſaid, in ſuch Proportions, and in ſuch Manner, as His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors ſhall think fit to order and direct, by any Order or Orders of Council, or by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be made or iſſued, from time to time, for that Purpoſe; and ſuch Moiety, or other Part of the ſaid Seizure or Seizures, ſhall be ſo paid and divided to and amongſt all the Officers and Seamen of ſuch Ship or Veſſel of War accordingly.

And whereas the Laws already made to prevent the clandeſtine importing and landing of foreign Brandy, Rum, Strong Waters, or other Spirits, Tea, Tobacco, Tobacco Stalks, and Snuff, in ſmall Veſſels, which hover upon the Coaſts of this Kingdom, have been found inſufficient for that Purpoſe; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of June, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-three, if any foreign Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Strong Waters, or Spirits of any Kind whatſoever, ſhall be imported or brought into Great-Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven, or Creek thereof, in any Ship, Veſſel or Boat, of the Burthen of Fifty Tons, or under (except only for the Uſe of the Seamen then belonging to and on board ſuch Ship, Veſſel or Boat, not exceeding Two Gallons for every ſuch Seaman) every ſuch Ship, Veſſel or Boat, with all her Tackle, Furniture and Apparel, and alſo all ſuch Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Strong Waters, or Spirits, or the Value thereof, ſhall be forfeited and loſt; and where any Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Strong Waters, or other Spirits, or any Tea, Tobacco, Tobacco Stalks, or Stems ſtript from the Leaf, or Snuff, is or are liable to Forfeiture, by Virtue of an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying Perſons who have been guilty of Offences againſt the Laws made for ſecuring the Revenue of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, and for enforcing thoſe Laws for the future;" and by another Act, made in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second, intituled, "An Act for the more effectual ſecuring the Duties upon Tobacco;" or either of them, for being found on board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel at Anchor, or hovering within the Limits of any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or within Two Leagues of the Shore, as is particularly expreſſed in thoſe Acts: It is hereby further enacted, that in every ſuch Caſe the Ship or Veſſel, on board of which ſuch Goods ſhall be ſo found, with all her Tackle, Furniture and Apparel, ſhall alſo be forfeited and loſt, provided ſuch Ship or Veſſel doth not exceed the Burthen of Fifty Tons.

And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Ship or Veſſel forfeited by this Act, ſhall be ſeized and proſecuted, and after Condemnation be burnt, deſtroyed, or uſed in His Majeſty's Service by the Officers of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, and the Tackle, Furniture and Apparel diſpoſed of and divided, and the Tonnage aſcertained in the ſame Manner as is directed by the Laws now in Force, with Reſpect to Veſſels of Forty Tons or under, forfeited for importing foreign Brandy or other Spirits.

And it is alſo further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Writ of Delivery ſhall be granted out of the Court of Exchequer, for any Ship, Veſſel or Boat, that is liable to be burnt, deſtroyed, or uſed in His Majeſty's Service by Virtue of this Act, or any other Act relating to the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, unleſs the Officer ſeizing the ſame ſhall delay proceeding to the Trial and Condemnation thereof for the Space of three Terms; and in that Caſe, not without good Security being given in double the appraiſed Value of ſuch Ship, Veſſel or Boat, to return the ſame upon Condemnation, in order to be burnt, deſtroyed, or uſed in his Majeſty's Service according to Law.

And whereas by an Act paſſed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her late Majeſty Queen ANNE, for granting to Her Majeſty new Duties of Exciſe, and upon ſeveral imported Commodities; and by another Act paſſed in the 15th and 16th Years of the Reign of His late Majeſty King GEORGE II. for further regulating the Plantation Trade, and ſeveral other Purpoſes, it is amongſt other Things enacted, That every Perſon, upon Entry of any Claim in the Court where any prohibited or uncuſtomed Goods, or any Ship, Veſſel or Boat, ſhall be proſecuted, ſhall be obliged to give Security, in the Penalty of Thirty Pounds, to anſwer and pay the Coſts occaſioned by ſuch Claim; and in Default of giving ſuch Security, within the Time limited by the Courſe of that Court for entering ſuch Claim, ſuch Goods, Ships, Veſſels or Boats, ſhall be recovered: And whereas many Perſons have, from the Smallneſs of the Penalty, been induced to enter groundleſs Claims in fictitious Names, with a View to put the Officers of the Revenue to vexatious Trouble and Delay, as well as to deter them from proſecuting Seizures legally made, by putting them to an extraordinary Expence, oftentimes more than the Value of the Goods ſeized, which tends very much to the Prejudice of the public Revenue, and to the Diſcouragement of the Officers thereof in the Execution of their Duty: To remedy therefore this Inconvenience for the future, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of May, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-three, every Perſon, upon Entry of any Claim in the Court where any Goods, Ships, Veſſels, or Boats, ſhall be proſecuted, ſhall be obliged to give Security, in the Penalty of Sixty Pounds, to anſwer and pay the Coſts occaſioned by ſuch Claim; and in Default of giving ſuch Security, within the Time limited by the Courſe of that Court for entering Claims, ſuch Goods, Ships, Veſſels or Boats, ſhall be adjudged to be forfeited, and ſhall be condemned; any thing in the before-recited Acts, or any other Act of Parliament, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And whereas, by certain Clauſes in an Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt, intituled, "An Act againſt clandeſtine running of uncuſtomed Goods, and for the more effectual preventing of Frauds relating to the Cuſtoms;" (which Clauſes have been continued by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts) it was declared and enacted, That where any Ship or Veſſel, of the Burthen of Fifty Tons, or under, laden with cuſtomable or prohibited Goods, ſhould be found hovering on the Coaſts of this Kingdom, within the Limits of any Port, and not proceeding on her Voyage for foreign Parts, or to ſome other Port of this Kingdom, Wind and Weather permitting, it ſhould and might be lawful to and for any Officer or Officers of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, to go on board every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and to take an Account of the Lading, and to demand and take Security from the Maſter, or other Perſon, having or taking the Charge or Command of ſuch Ship or Veſſel in that Voyage, by his own Bond by him to be entered into unto His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, in ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, as ſhould be Treble the Value of ſuch foreign Goods then on board, with Condition, that ſuch Ship or Veſſel, as ſoon as Wind and Weather, and the State and Condition of ſuch Ship or Veſſel permitted, ſhould, and would, proceed regularly on ſuch Voyage, and ſhould land ſuch foreign Goods in and at ſome foreign Port or Ports; and if ſuch Maſter, or other Perſon having or taking the Charge or Command of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhould, upon ſuch Demand, refuſe to enter into ſuch Bond, or, having entered into ſuch Bond, ſhould not depart or proceed regularly on ſuch Voyage as ſoon as Wind and Weather, and the State and Condition of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhould permit, unleſs otherwiſe ſuffered to make a longer Stay by the Collector, or other principal Officer in his Abſence, of ſuch Port where ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhould be, not exceeding Twenty Days, then, and in either of the ſaid Caſes, all the foreign Goods ſo on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhould and might, by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms, by Direction of the Collector, or other principal Officer as aforeſaid, be taken out of and from ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and forthwith brought on ſhore and ſecured; and in caſe the ſaid Goods were cuſtomable, the Cuſtoms and other Duties ſhould be paid for the ſame: And as concerning Wool, or any prohibited Goods, or other Goods liable to Forfeiture, which might be found on board ſuch Ships or Veſſels at the Time of their unlading as aforeſaid, the ſame were thereby declared to be ſubject to Forfeiture, and the Officers of the Cuſtoms ſhould and might proſecute the ſame, as alſo the Ship or Veſſel, in caſe ſhe ſhould be liable to Condemnation, as in the Manner therein after mentioned; and that after ſuch Goods were ſo taken out of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and brought on ſhore and ſecured by ſuch Officer or Officers, ſuch Bonds ſo to be given as aforeſaid, ſhould be void, and delivered up, without any Fee or Reward for taking or delivering up the ſame; and ſuch Bond, not being otherwiſe diſcharged, ſhould, on a proper Certificate, returned under the Common Seal of the chief Magiſtrate in any Place or Places beyond the Seas, or under the Hands and Seals of Two known Britiſh Merchants upon the Place, that ſuch Goods were there landed, or upon Proof by credible Perſons, that ſuch Goods were taken by Enemies, or periſhed in the Seas (the Examination and Proof thereof being left to the Judgment of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms) ſhould be vacated and diſcharged: And whereas the extending of the ſaid Clauſes to the reſt of His Majeſty's Dominions, may be a Means of preventing illicit Trade; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of July, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-three, the ſaid Clauſes, and every Part of them, ſhall be extended to all Ships and Veſſels of the Burthen of Fifty Tons, or under, which ſhall be found hovering on the Coaſts of Ireland, or any other of His Majeſty's Dominions or Territories belonging to the Crown of Great-Britain; and ſhall be of equal Force in every Reſpect, in regard to all ſuch Ships and Veſſels found hovering on any of the Coaſts aforeſaid, as ſuch Clauſes now are, or ſhall be conſtrued to be, in regard to any Ships or Veſſels hovering on the Coaſts of this Kingdom; and all Offences which ſhall be committed againſt the ſaid Clauſes, or any Part of them, on the Coaſts of Ireland, ſhall be tried, and the Penalties and Forfeitures thereby incurred ſhall be proſecuted for and recovered, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record in Dublin in the ſaid Kingdom; and all Offences which ſhall be committed againſt the ſaid Clauſes, or any Part of them, on the Coaſts of any other of His Majeſty's Dominions or Territories (except this Kingdom) ſhall be tried, and the Penalties and Forfeitures thereby incurred ſhall be proſecuted for and recovered, in any Court of Admiralty, in the Dominion or Territory on the Coaſt whereof ſuch Offence ſhall be committed (which Court of Admiralty is hereby authorized, impowered, and required to proceed to, hear, and determine the ſame) or in any Court of Record in ſuch Dominion or Territory, at the Election of the Informer or Proſecutor, according to the Courſe and Method uſed and practiſed there in Proſecutions for Offences againſt penal Laws relating to the Cuſtoms or Exciſe; and ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures ſo recovered there, ſhall be divided and applied in ſuch and the ſame Manner as Penalties and Forfeitures recovered in Great-Britain for the like Offences are, or in Purſuance of this Act may be, directed to be divided and applied.

Court at St. James's, June 1, 1763. PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, entituled, "An Act for further Improvement of His Majesty's Revenue of Customs; and for the Encouragement of Officers making Seizures; and for the Prevention of the clandestine Running of Goods into any Part of His Majesty's Dominions," it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That for the more effectual Prevention of the infamous Practice of Smuggling, and for the better Encouragement of the Officers and Seamen of all such Ships and Vessels of War belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, who may be employed in preventing the clandestine Running of Goods on the Coasts of Great-Britain and Ireland, and of the other Dominions and Colonies belonging to the Crown of Great-Britain, one Moiety of the Nett Produce arising by the Sale of Smuggling Vessels, and prohibited Goods, which shall be seized after the first Day of May, 1763, and condemned and sold according to Law (the Charges whereof being first deducted) shall be vested in the said Officers and Seamen; and His Majesty is thereby empowered to cause the same to be divided amongst the said Officers and Seamen, in such Proportions, and in such Manner, as His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, shall think fit to order and direct, by any Orders of Council, or by any Proclamation or Proclamations, to be made or issued, from Time to Time, for that Purpose; and His Majesty is likewise empowered by the said Act, to make a Distribution of any other Part of all and every the Seizure and Seizures that shall be made by such Officers and Seamen respectively; the Money arising by the Sale of which other Part is directed by the said Act to be paid into the Exchequer. His Majesty taking the same into His Royal Consideration, is hereby pleased, pursuant to the Powers vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, direct, and appoint, That the Moiety of Seizures, granted by the said Act to the Officers and Seamen as aforesaid, be divided in the following Proportions; videlicet.

1st. With Regard to Seizures made by the Officers and Men of Ships and Sloops of War.

To the Captain or Captains of any such Ships or Sloops, who shall be actually on board at the Seizure of any Smuggling Vessel, or prohibited Goods, three eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongst them; to the Captains of Marines, and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants and Masters on board any such Ships or Sloops, one eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them; to the Lieutenants and Quarter Masters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Ensigns and Quarter-masters of Land Forces, Boatswain, Gunner, Purser, Carpenter, Master's Mate, Surgeon, Pilot, and Chaplain, on board any such Ships or Sloops, one eighth Part, to be equally divided among them; to the Midshipmen, Secretary to Flag Officers, Captain's Clerk, Master Sail-maker, Carpenter's Mates, Boatswain's Mates, Gunner's Mates, Master at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Coxswain, Quarter Masters, Quarter Masters Mates, Surgeon's Mates, Yeomen of the Powder Room, and Serjeants of Marines or Land Forces, on board any such Ships or Sloops, one eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them; to the Trumpeters, Quarter Gunners, Carpenter's Crew, Steward, Cook, Armourer, Steward's Mate, Cook's Mate, Gunsmith, Cooper, Swabber, Ordinary Trumpeter, Barber, able Seamen, ordinary Seamen, and Marine, or other Soldiers, and all other Persons doing Duty or assisting on board any such Ships or Sloops, two eighth Parts, to be equally divided among them.

2d. With Regard to Seizures made by the Officers and Men of Cutters, commanded by Lieutenants.

To the Lieutenant commanding such Cutter, who shall actually be on board at the Seizure of any Smuggling Vessel, or prohibited Goods, one Half Part; to the second Master and Pilot, or Master's Mate, and the Midshipmen on board any such Cutter, one eighth Part; the second Master and Pilot, or Master's Mate, to have two third Parts thereof, and the Midshipmen to have the Remainder: But if there happen to be a Pilot Extraordinary on board at the making of any such Seizure, the second Master and Pilot, or Master's Mate, is, in that Case, to have one Moiety of the said eight Part, and the other Moiety is to be equally divided between the Pilot Extraordinary and Midshipman. To the Clerk and Steward, Boatswain's Mate, Gunner's Mate, Carpenter's Mate, and Surgeon's Mate on board any such Cutter, one eighth Part; to the able Seamen, ordinary Seamen, and all other Persons doing Duty, and assisting on board any such Cutter, two eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongst them.

3d. With Regard to Seizures made by Ships or Sloops of War in Conjunction with Cutters.

That in all such Cases, the Moiety which is given to the Officers and Men who shall make such Seizure, be divided into so many equal Parts, or Shares, as there may be Ships or Sloops, and Cutters concerned therein, and that those Shares be distributed to the Officers and Men of the Ships or Sloops, and Cutters, according to the aforegoing Proportions.

And His Majesty doth hereby further order, direct and appoint, That in case any Seizure shall be made in any of the Colonies Abroad, belonging to the Crown of Great-Britain, by His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, being Part of the Squadron, or acting under the Orders of a Flag Officer, or a Commodore, with a Captain under him, such Flag Officer or Commodore, shall have one fourth Part of the other Moiety of the said Seizure, which is directed by Act of Parliament to be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer: And in case any Sea Captain, inferior Commission or Warrant Sea Officers, belonging to any such Ship or Vessel, for whom any Shares of Seizures are hereby allowed, be absent at the Time of making such Seizure, the Share of such Sea Captain, inferior Commission, or Warrant Sea Officer, shall be cast into the Shares hereby allowed to the Trumpeters, Quarter Gunners, Carpenter's Crew, Steward, Cook, Armourer, Steward's Mate, Cook's Mate, Gunsmith, Cooper, Swabber, Ordinary Trumpeter, Barber, able Seamen, ordinary Seamen, and Marine or other Soldiers, and all other Persons doing Duty or assisting on board any such Ship or Vessel, to be equally divided amongst them. Provided, That if any Officer, or Officers, on board of any such Ships or Sloops, at the Time of making such Seizures, shall have more Commissions or Offices than One, he or they shall be entitled only to the Share which, according to the abovementioned Distribution, shall belong to his or their respective superior Commissions or Officers. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to cause His Majesty's Pleasure, hereby signified, to be duly complied with."

WILLIAMSBURGH, September 16.

An express arrived in town yesterday, with letters to his Honour the Governor from Col. Stephen, by which we have the following advices, viz. That a Party of Indians attacked 6 men in Welton's meadow, on Loony's creek, the 20th of August, about XI at night; when they killed Michael Harness and Jonathan Welton, wounded Joab Welton, and took one Delea Prisoner. The Indian that wounded Joab Welton was upon the point of repeating the stroke with the tomahawk, and killing him, when the savage was shot by one Delea, brother to the prisoner of that name; on his discharging his piece, he was attacked by several Indians at once; the first that made up to him he knocked down with his gun, but the savages wresting it out of his hand, he knocked down another with a tomahawk, which he carried under his belt. By this time the Indians had jostled him to the place where his brother lay tied: upon seeing him taken prisoner, he immediately dropt all thoughts of further resistance, and gave himself up, expecting likewise to be taken prisoner; but they hurried him away to the Indian that was shot, tomahawked him, scalped him, and wounded him with a knife, leaving him for dead, but the poor man crawled to some hay, and covered himself up, where he was found next morning perfectly in his senses, told the whole affair circumstantially, and lived two days afterwards. On receiving this intelligence, Col. Stephen ordered Major Wilson and Captain Collins of the Hampshire militia to raise two companies of voluntiers, and pursue the enemy, as soon as they could possibly provide themselves with Provisions. Major Wilson took the rout of Loony's creek; and Capt. Collins being ordered to reconnoiter the head branches of Patterson's creek, he fell in with the Major's party at the foot of the Allegheny mountains. After communicating intelligence, they thought it adviseable to pursue the Indians over the mountains; accordingly, on the 30th of August, after a pursuit of 120 miles, over as rugged mountains as can be found, they came up with them on a branch of the Monongahela. Being on fresh tracks in the evening, Major Wilson was certain that their encampment was at no great distance; he therefore detached parties different ways in the night, to listen for horse bells, or see if they could discover fire: the noise of the bells directed them to the encampment, and before day they had crept within 30 paces of the enemy, and surrounded them. The orders were not to fire until it was light enough to see all the births where the Indians lay; but a big fellow rising to make up the fire, one of the party fired at him a little too soon, which brought on the engagement. This is to be attributed to the young man's eagerness to revenge the death of his father, who had been killed and scalped by the savages. Major Wilson, however, routed the party, took 3 Indian scalps, wounded many more, and took 11 rifles and 2 smooth barrel guns from them, with all their war equipage, and retook a number of horses. They likewise released Delea the prisoner, and got back the three scalps taken in Welton's meadow.

ANNAPOLIS, September 8.

Monday last Five Men were in Town, who were very flush with [false] Virginia Paper Money; Some Pounds of which they passed off here, and in the Neighbourhood. Upon the Discovery of the Cheat, they were pursued, and Yesterday Morning about 2 or 3 o'Clock, four of them who had taken the Road towards Frederick-Town, the other having gone the Road towards Baltimore, were discovered at a House about 18 Miles off, but when they found that they were followed, they made off with the greatest Precipitation, and got into the Woods, two of them leaving their Hats and Indian Stockings behind them, and all four their Horses and Saddles. One of them is a large Roan, branded on the near Buttock with MF join'd in one; another a small bright Bay, branded on the off Buttock A, and on the off Shoulder I, and has some white Hairs on his near Buttock; both with bob Tails: The other Two are, a large roan Stallion, and a small grey Mare. The Counterfeit Bills which they passed, were of Five Pounds, Forty Shillings, and Twenty Shillings, and but very indifferently executed.

Sept. 22. Last Week there was found stuffed in the Pad of one of the Saddles left by those Men, above mentioned, who passed off so much of the Counterfeit Virginia Money, upwards of Forty false Forty Shilling Bills, dated MDCCLXII.

Extract of a Letter from Col. Adam Stephen, dated the 30th of last Month, to Henry Lee, Esq; County Lieutenant of Prince William, in Virginia.

"I am sorry to acquaint you, that we are constantly harrassed with Parties of Indians amongst us, either in Hampshire or Frederick. I am just returned from an Expedition towards the Allegheny, and round all the Frontiers of Hampshire, in which we have taken two Scalps, recovered three Prisoners, carried off by the Savages, and, according to their Information, and our own Opinion, killed five more Indians, that we could not scalp. I am obliged to apply to you, Sir, for a Detachment of your Militia, consisting at least of one Captain, one Lieutenant, one Ensign, five Serjeants, and sixty Rank and File; and I must request you to have them well appointed with Arms and Ammunition, and dispatch them to Winchester with the greatest Expedition, where I shall wait to give them further Orders.

NEW-YORK, September 29.

On the 15th arrived here Captain Baldwin, of Branford, in Connecticut, in 16 Days from Barbados.--- He reports that 6 Days before he arrived, in Latitude between 36 and 37, they were hailed in the Dead of Night by a Man, who seemed to be in great Distress, and must have been on a Plank or some Piece of Timber in the Sea, for there was no Vessel in Sight---but the Sea running high, and the Vessel being under a large Sail, going very fast, they were immediately out of hearing, and could not possibly give him any Assistance---Next Day they saw a drowned Man.

On Sunday last arrived the Snow Prince William, Captain Cole, in 11 Weeks from London, and 9 from Plymouth, she brings no Advices, by a Month so late as we received by the Packet. She has brought a considerable Quantity of Soldier's Cloathes.

October 3. On Friday last the Albany Post came to Town, in Manner of an Express, bringing the Mail, and riding extraordinary on the following doleful Occasion, viz.

Copy of a Letter from a Gentleman at Niagara, dated September 16.

SIR,

I HAVE just Time to tell you we arrived safe at Niagara 13th Inst. delay'd much on Lake Ontario, by hard Gales and Storms of Rain. Next Day had an Express from Little Niagara (a Post above the Falls) that our Convoy, with the Teams employed in carrying Provisions to Lake Erie, was attacked; we sent off from our Fort a Reinforcement of a Major, and about 70 Men, which was followed by a Captain, and 50 more, an Hour after, to support them: The Whole of the Indians, by the best Accounts, amount to about 300, divided into two Bodies, one of which (i. e.) the most inconsiderable was that which attacked the Convoy, the other lay in Ambush about 2 or 3 Miles nigher our Post, near the Carrying-Place, and possessed themselves of a most advantageous Piece of rising Ground near the Road, to intercept our Succours; on the first hearing of the Firing by the Convoy, Capt. Johnston, and three Subalterns, marched with about 80 Men, mostly of Gage's Light Infantry, who were in a little Camp adjacent; they had scarce Time to form when the Indians appeared at the above Pass; our People fired briskly on them, but was instantly surrounded, and the Captain who commanded mortally wounded the first Fire; the 3 Subalterns also were soon after killed, on which a general Confusion ensued: The Indians rushed in on all Sides, and cut about 60 or 70 Men in Pieces, including the Convoy: Ten of our Men are all we can yet learn have made their Escape; they came here through the Woods Yesterday. From many Circumstances, it is believed the Senecas have a chief Hand in this Affair.

"I wish our Affairs at Detroit may not suffer by this, as all the Oxen and Teams on the Carrying-place are destroyed, and the Horses missing, which 'tis believed are drove off by the Indians: Our Reinforcement came up too late to save them or the People, so returned that Night, and next Day marched and buried all they could; most of those who came in are wounded. We shall be in an ugly Situation, having a weak sickly Garrison, if Detroit should fail (which God forbid) to stand the Fury of those rascally Indians; but dare say our wise General will provide against the worst, and will in Time send such a Force as will be able to chastise those Savages so effectually, that they will dread the Name of an Englishman to latest Posterity.

"Our People too, had a Brush at the Wreck in Lake Erie, with a small Body of the Indians, and beat them off, but lost four or five Men; they promised when Reinforcements should join them they would pay us another Visit there; but we have little to fear from that Quarter, as we have 170 Men there, strongly entrenched, to guard the Provisions saved from the Wreck."

Extract of another Letter from Niagara, dated Sept. 17, 1763.

"Wednesday the 14th Inst. a large Body of Indians, some say 300, others 4 or 500, came down upon the Carrying-Place, attacked the Waggon Escort, which consisted of a Serjeant and 24 Men;---this small Body immediately became a Sacrifice, only two Waggoners escaped. Two Companies of Light Infantry (the General's and La Hunt's) that were encamped at the Lower Landing, hearing the Fire, instantly rushed out to their Relief, headed by Lieuts. George Campbell, and Frazier, Lieutenant Rosco, of the Artillery, and Lieutenant Deaton, of the Provincials; this Party had not marched above a Mile and Half when they were attacked, surrounded, and almost every Man cut to Pieces; the Officers were all killed, it is reported, on the Enemy's first Fire; the Savages rushed down upon them in three Columns.

"The Officers being killed, the Men fell into Confusion: Of both our Parties only 24 are come in, Waggoners included, eight of whom are wounded. Lieuts. Campbell, Frazier, Rosco and Deaton, killed, and about 75 Rank and File killed: Capt. Johnston, of the Jersey Blues, who was coming down on some Business with the Waggon Escort, killed. The Savages killed 16 Oxen on the Spot, and destroyed most of the Carriages: The Horses, in Number 20, they have carried off, loaded with their Plunder. As soon as the Alarm reached this Post, Major Wilkins marched out with the main Part of this Garrison to the Lower Landing, but Night coming on, were obliged to return back; the next Day he marched out again to the Place of Action, buried the Dead, which were every one scalped, and stripped naked, brought off four or five Waggons, and three Firelocks, the Enemy having carried off all the rest of the Arms, Cartouch Boxes, &c. The Bodies were so mangled, they could not discover either Rosco or Deaton; we don't imagine here they carried off any Prisoners. The Consequence of this Blow is better imagined than described; 'tis what we have long been apprehensive of: This, together with the Loss of the Sloop on Lake Erie, will render it very difficult to support Detroit this Winter, unless a large Reinforcement is soon sent up."

The Snow George, of and from Dublin, bound for Philadelphia, Mr. Savage, at present Master, arrived at Sandy-Hook last Saturday, after a tedious Passage of 13 Weeks, with 120 Passengers, and the same Evening the Captain came up to Town, from whom we received the following Paragraph in Writing, viz.

"The 17th of August, 1763, Captain John Bowen, of the Snow George, and Mr. Armstrong the Mate, about 6 o' Clock, went on board the Snow George of Dublin, Capt. Crannell, in the Yawl, and at Half past 8 P. M. the Snow being to Windward, bore down under our Lee, and was hailed by us, asking if they were coming on board; was answered by Mr Armstrong the Mate that they were, and ordered the Tackles to be got ready to hoist the Yawl in; upon which the Topsails were laid to the Mast, expecting their coming, and continued in that Posture for Half an Hour, being close to the above mentioned Vessel. She made Sail, and not perceiving the Boat, I imagined they had not left the Vessel; upon which, with general Consent, made Sail after her till Day-light appeared; the Vessel being then out of Sight, we put about, and made the best of our Way to our desired Port."

PRINCE-TOWN, New-Jersey, Sept. 29.

Yesterday the TRUSTEES of the College of New-Jersey, at their first Meeting since the Arrival of Governor FRANKLIN, presented him with the following Address.

To his Excellency WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Esq; Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over His Majesty's Province of New-Jersey, and Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral in the same.

May it please your EXCELLENCY,

THE Trustees of the College of New-Jersey esteem themselves happy, in this Opportunity of presenting your Excellency with their Respects, and begging that you would please to accept their Congratulations on your Appointment to this Government; they only have to wish that a more early Day had been in their Power.

Your Disposition, Sir, to favour every Institution calculated to promote Learning, and the general Good of Mankind, is not to be doubted; and therefore, with Pleasure we beg Leave to recommend to your Excellency's Patronage the College under our Care. We can assure you, Sir, that we have endeavoured to form it upon such a Plan, and to conduct it in such a Manner, as to make it of the most general and extensive Usefulness------our Idea is to send into the World good Scholars, and useful Members of Society.----Your Excellency's Predecessors, since the founding of this College, have severally, in their Turns, been pleased to think it worthy of their Regard; which, with the Benefactions of the Public-spirited at home and abroad, under the divine Blessing, has brought it to its present flourishing State.-----We hope for, and expect its Increase, under your Excellency's Influence.

The Governor of this Colony, for the Time being, by our Charter of Incorporation, is a Member and President of our Board; and we hope your Excellency will be pleased to honour this Institution by your personal Attendance in those Capacities.

Your Excellency has our most cordial Wishes for your public and domestic Happiness-----for your Peace, Comfort and Usefulness in the Administration of the Government of this Province.

RICHARD STOCKTON, Clerk.

ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

MY cordial Acknowledgments are due to you for this obliging Testimony of your Regard.

I am fully sensible of the Utility of the Institution under your Care, and have the highest Opinion of the Merits of those Gentlemen by whose good Management it has been brought, in so short a Space of Time to its present flourishing Condition. If my Endeavours can any Way contribute to the further perfecting this salutary Work, you may depend they will never be wanting.

ELEGY

To the MEMORY of

Mr. GODFREY. 1763.

O DEATH! thou Victor of the human Frame!
The Soul's poor Fabric trembles at thy Name!
How long shall Man be urg'd to dread thy Sway,
For those whom Thou untimely tak'st away?
Life's blooming Spring just opens to our Eyes,
And strikes the Senses with a sweet Surprize,
When thy fierce Arm uplifts the fatal Blow,
That hurls us breathless to the Earth below.
SUDDEN as darts the Lightning through the Sky
Around the Globe thy various Weapons fly:
Here WAR's red Engines heap the Field with Slain,
And pallid SICKNESS there extends thy Reign;
Here the soft Virgin weeps her Lover dead,
There Maiden Beauty sinks the graceful Head;
Here Infants grieve their Parents are no more,
There rev'rent Sires their Childrens deaths deplore;
Here the sad Friend-----O! save the sacred Name,
Yields half his Soul to thy relentless Claim;
O pardon, pardon the descending Tear,
Friendship commands, and not the Muses, here.
O say, thou much-lov'd dear departed Shade,
To what celestial Region hast thou stray'd?
Where is that Vein of Thought, that noble Fire
Which fed thy Soul, and bade the World admire?
That manly Strife with Fortune to be just,
That Love of Praise? an honourable Thirst!
The Soul, alas! has fled to endless Day,
And left its House a mould'ring Mass of Clay.
THERE where no Fears invade, nor Ills molest,
Thy Soul shall dwell immortal with the Blest;
In that bright Realm, where dearest Friends no more
Shall from each others throbbing Breasts be tore,
Where all those glorious Spirits sit enshrin'd,
The Just, the Good, the Virtuous of Mankind:
There shall fair Angels in a radiant Ring,
And the great Son of Heav'n's eternal King,
Proclaim Thee welcome to the blissful Skies,
And wipe the Tears for ever from thy Eyes.
How did we hope----alas! the Hope how vain!
To hear thy future more enripen'd Strain,
When Fancy's Fire with Judgment had combin'd
To guide each Effort of th' enraptur'd Mind;
Yet are those youthful glowing Lays of thine
The Emanations of a Soul divine:
Who heard thee sing, but felt sweet Music's Dart
In thrilling Transports pierce his captiv'd Heart?
Whether soft melting Airs attun'd thy Song,
Or pleas'd to pour the thund'ring Verse along;
Still nobly great, true Offspring of the Nine,
Alas! how blasted in thy glorious Prime!
So when first opes the Eye-lids of the Morn
A radiant Purple does the Heav'ns adorn,
Fresh smiling Glory streaks the Skies around,
And gayly silvers ev'ry rising Mound,
'Til some black Storm o'erclouds the Æther fair,
And all its Beauties vanish into Air.
STRANGER, who e'er thou art, by Fortune's Hand
That's tost on CAROLINA's baleful Strand,
Oh! if thou seest perchance the Poet's Grave,
The sacred Spot with Tears of Sorrow lave,
Oh! shade it, shade it with ne'er-fading Bays,
Hallow'd's the Place where gentle GODFREY lays.
(So may no sudden Dart from Death's dread Bow,
Far from the Friends thou lov'st e'er lay thee low.)
There may the weeping Morn its Tribute bring,
And Angels shield it with their golden Wing,
'Til the last Trump shall burst the Womb of Night,
And the purg'd Atoms to their Soul unite!

PRINCE-TOWN, September 29.

YESTERDAY his Excellency our Governor, with the other Trustees, attended the Anniversary Commencement of the College of New-Jersey. The Exercises of the Day were introduced by a short, elegant Latin Oration, pronounced by the President; to which succeeded a well composed salutatory Oration, delivered by one of the young Gentlemen of the senior Class; and then the following Theses were maintained and opposed by the Candidates for the Batchelor's Degree, viz. "The Preacher of the Gospel has the best Opportunity of exercising the Art of Rhetoric in its whole Extent. That ceremonious Behaviour, usually called Polite Manners, is not vain and senseless Parade, but useful and necessary. Brute Creatures think, but have not human Reason. Ars typographica plus Utilitatis quam Detrimenti Veritati & bonis Moribus attulit. Necessitas Moralis Lubentiæ rationali nequaquam repugnat. The four former in the forensic, the latter in the syllogistic Way. The several Disputants acquitted themselves to general Satisfaction. The Entertainment was agreeably diversified by two elegant English Orations, one on Peace, the other on Reputation, which were well pronounced.

A beautiful Harangue on the Advantages of Health introduced the Exercises of the Candidates for the Master's Degree. This was succeeded by a Latin Disputation, on this Thesis, "Nulla Simplex Imperii civilis Forma, est quam optima," which was maintained and opposed with great Judgment. A spirited valedictory Address concluded these Exercises.

The following young Gentlemen were admitted to the Degree of Batchelor of Arts; James Boyd, John Close, Robert Cooper, David Cowell, John Craigbead, Samuel Eakin, Ezekiel Emerson, Noah Hart, James Jauncey, John Lothrop, Joseph Lyon, Obadiah Noble, William Patterson, Topping Reeve, John Simpson, William Mackey Tennent, James Watt, Simon Williams, Joseph Worth. Also the following Gentlemen were admitted to the Degree of Master of Arts; Joseph Alexander, John Archer, Samuel Blair, Enoch Green, James Hunt, Benjamin Rush, John Siemons, Jonathan Smith, Amos Thompson, Thomas Smith, John Van Brugh Tennent. Also the following Gentlemen; Dr. John Redman, Dr. William Shippen, jun. Francis Hopkinson, Esq; John Wentworth, Esq; with the Reverend Messieurs Benjamin Fawcet, and Job Orton, had the Degree of Master of Arts conferred on them, as a proper Testimony of their literary Merit. The whole was concluded by an Ode set to Music, and a beautiful poetic Dialogue on Peace, to the general Satisfaction of a very crouded, polite and learned Assembly.

THERE is now in the Hands of John Hay, Esq; High Sheriff of Lancaster County, a Silver Watch, almost new, with a China Face, John Williams Maker, London, No. 1378, with a Silver Chain and Seal. Also a very large Pair of carved Silver Buckles; both which are supposed to be stolen. Whoever owns the same, by applying to the above Hay, and paying Charges, may have them again.

WAS taken, and committed to York Goal, about six Weeks ago, a Negroe Man, a lusty well set Fellow; he has formerly had a Cut on his right Cheek, which occasions a Redness and Sore in his Eye, and has a Lump on his Leg, which appears as if he had received a Shot or Stab therein; speaks almost no English. The Owner, on paying Charges, may have him again, by applying to JACOB GRAYBLE, Goaler. ¶

Easton Goal, in Northampton County, October 6, 1763.

WHEREAS a certain Negroe Man, who calls himself Spencer Lake, and says he belongs to Colonel Palmer, of Virginia, and was by him hired to John Pennel, of Maryland, from whom he ran away, was committed to this Goal upwards of a Year ago, and advertised in the Pennsylvania Gazette, and particular Notice of his being here given to said Pennel: Now this is to give public Notice to the Master or Owner of said Negroe, that unless they send or come and pay the Charges, and take him away, before the first Day of November next, he will on that Day be sold out, for Payment thereof. JACOB BAUCHMAN, Goaler.

THIS is to give Notice, that John Roberts, a Mulattoe, was taken up at Jacob Ham's Tavern, by William Baley and James Craig, and hath since absconded; said Mulattoe had Thirty Shillings in Cash, a loaded Gun, a Pair of Pumps, a fine Shirt, a Wig, one Pair of Stockings, two white Jackets, and a rough Ditto, and had a Cut on the Left Side of his Head, near his Temple. Whoever takes up the said Mulattoe, and brings him to the above named William Baley and James Craig, shall have Twenty Shillings Reward.

BOSTON, September 26.

Extract of a Letter from a Merchant in Halifax, to his Correſpondent in Boſton, dated Sept. 8, 1763.

"One of the neutral French was apprehended a few Days ago; he came from France Via London, and arrived here in one of the laſt Ships; he has been tampering with the Indians, and has, in the Name of Duke d'Auvergne, given Aſſurances to the French, that they ſhall be ſoon in Poſſeſſion of their Eſtates again: His Name is Beau-Soleil."

Capt. Bowen, who arrived at Marblehead laſt Week, informs, that off the Weſtern Iſlands he diſcovered a ſmall light Brig, and ſeeing no Perſon in her, went on board, and by examining her Papers ſhe appeared to be a Spaniſh Veſſel, ſuppoſed to have drove out of ſome of the Ports in theſe Iſlands.

October 3. A Ship arrived in King Road laſt Evening, ſuppoſed to be a Man of War, but we cannot learn who ſhe is.

Since our laſt arrived here from Halifax, the Schooner Deſire, Joſhua Beal, Maſter, who informs, that as Captain Freeman, in a Sloop from that Place, was going up the Bay of Fundy, and St. John's River, he unhappily ſtruck on a ſunken Rock in the Mouth of the River; whereby the Veſſel, with a Cargo belonging to ſome Gentlemen at Halifax, valued at 1200l. that Currency, were entirely loſt: Mr. Peter Minot, with his Wife, of this Town, who were Paſſengers on board, were both unfortunately drowned; but the Maſter, with the reſt of the People, with great Difficulty got on Shore, and thereby eſcaped ſharing the ſame unhappy Fate.

NEW-YORK, October 10.

By the Succeſs Capt. Paine, in 7 weeks from Teneriffe, we hear that a miſunderſtanding has for ſome time been growing between the Court of Great Britain and the Emperor of Morocco, who had refuſed or ſlighted the preſents ſent him from England, where alſo his ambaſſador was treated with coldneſs; the Engliſh Conſul, Joſeph Popham, Eſq; was recalled, and actually arrived at Gibraltar, and by a veſſel juſt arrived from Cadiz, advice was brought that the Emperor Sade Mohamed had declared war againſt England, and 9 gallies from Sally, Tetuan and Tangier, were already out cruiſing againſt us. England is now at war only with Savages and Barbarians, we hope they will be overcome by humanity, and taught to practiſe it.

The Veſſels that ſailed lately from hence for St. Auguſtine, with a Number of Officers, Proviſions, Money, &c. arrived there ſafe in 13 Days.

Detroit, Sept. 9, 1763.

"Since my laſt to you we have had ſeveral Skirmiſhes with ſmall Parties of the Enemy, in taking Poſſeſſion of three Houſes about 500 Yards up the River, which prevents the Indians coming ſo near the Fort to diſcover our Motions. The 4th Inſt. about Half after 8 o'Clock in the Evening, 3 or 400 Indians, in Canoes, went off to attack our Schooner, that was coming up the River from Niagara, with Proviſions. They met her becalmed about 9 Miles from the Fort, with only 12 Hands on board, who defended themſelves ſo bravely, that the Indians, after attacking with great Reſolution on all Sides, were obliged to retire with the Loſs of many killed and wounded, 7 of which are ſince dead of their Wounds. The Indians attempted to enter the Schooner by the Cabbin Windows, but were obliged to fall aſtern, and ſeveral were killed by endeavouring to board by the Boltſprit. The Number of Indians killed on the Spot is uncertain; ſome ſay 10; but they have been very buſy for ſeveral Days paſt fiſhing and ſearching for dead Bodies. Mr. Horſ., Maſter of the Schooner, and one Man, was killed, three wounded, and another burnt by the burſting of a Cannon Cartridge.

"The Indians were ſo roughly handled, that they have declared they never will attempt to attack the Engliſh by Water any more; and they having heard the Captain of the Schooner ſay to his Men, in the Action, "Stand by, my brave Fellows, to the laſt, and then blow up the Veſſel;" which was anſwered by the Crew with three CHEERS, the Indians imagined they would neither give nor take Quarters, left the Schooner in the greateſt Confuſion, and two Canoes were overſet by our Shot. By the Blood on the Spears and Lances on board the Schooner, and the Spirits of the Indians being much flagged ſince, they muſt certainly have met with a conſiderable Loſs; but as we are ſurrounded with a Parcel of Raſcals, who never bring us any News to the Diſadvantage of the Enemy, 'tis impoſſible to know what Miſchief we have done them.

"Immediately after the Action, which was ſhort and ſmart, 4 armed Battoes, with a Four-pounder in each, and two Officers, and 24 Men, were ordered on board the Schooner, who brought her ſafe here the 6th Inſtant.

"The Indians confeſs they had 10 killed at the Attack with Capt. Dalyell.----Five Indians, belonging to the Six Nations, came up in the Schooner, and went on Shore in the Morning, when the Veſſel was attacked in the Evening; it is therefore not impoſſible but that they either intended to betray the Veſſel, or elſe were compelled by the Ottawawas to diſcover our Strength on board the Schooner, on which they attacked her, as it was afterwards told us."

PHILADELPHIA, October 13.

To-morrow the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province meets here.

This Morning, at Ten o'Clock, the Reverend Mr. WHITEFIELD preaches at St. Paul's Church.

On Sunday Night laſt an Expreſs arrived from Northampton County, with the following melancholy Account, viz. "That on the Morning before the Houſe of John Stinton, about eight Miles from Bethlehem, was attacked by the Indians as follows. Captain Wetherholt, with a Party, belonging to Fort Allen, being at that Houſe, and intending early for the Fort, ordered a Servant out to get his Horſe ready, who was immediately ſhot down by the Enemy; upon which the Captain going to the Door, was alſo fired at, and mortally wounded: That then a Serjeant attempted to pull in the Captain, and to ſhut the Door, but he was likewiſe dangerouſly wounded: That the Lieutenant next advanced, when an Indian jumped upon the Bodies of the two others, and preſented a Piſtol to his Breaſt, which he put a little aſide, and it went off over his Shoulder, whereby he got the Indian out of the Houſe, and ſhut the Door: That the Indians after this went round to a Window, and as Stinton was getting out of Bed, ſhot him, but not dead, and he breaking out of the Houſe, ran about a Mile, where he dropt and died: That his Wife, and 2 Children, ran down into the Cellar, where they were ſhot at three Times, but eſcaped: That Captain Wetherholt, finding himſelf growing very weak, crawled to a Window, and ſhot an Indian dead, it was thought, as he was ſetting Fire to the Houſe with a Match: And that upon this the other Indians carried him away with them, and went off.---Captain Wetherholt died ſoon after."

Extract of a Letter from Bethlehem, October 9.

"Early this Morning came Nicholas Marks, of Whitehall Townſhip, and brought the following Account, viz. That Yeſterday, juſt after Dinner, as he opened his Door, he ſaw an Indian ſtanding about two Poles from the Houſe, who endeavoured to ſhoot at him; but Marks ſhutting the Door immediately, the Fellow ſlipt into a Cellar, cloſe by the Houſe. After this ſaid Marks went out of the Houſe, with his Wife, and an Apprentice Boy, in order to make their Eſcape, and ſaw another Indian ſtanding behind a Tree, who alſo tried to ſhoot at them, but his Gun miſſed Fire.----They then ſaw a third Indian running through the Orchard; upon which they made the beſt of their Way, about two Miles off, to one Adam Taſhler's, where about 20 Men in Arms were aſſembled, who went firſt to the Houſe of Jacob Mekly, where they found a Boy and Girl lying dead, and the Girl ſcalped. From thence they went to Hance Sneider's, and ſaid Marks's Plantations, and found both the Houſes on Fire, and a Horſe tied to the Buſhes. They alſo found ſaid Sneider, his Wife, and three Children, dead in the Field, the Man and Woman ſcalped, but not the Children.-----On going further, they found three Girls, one dead, the other two wounded, one of which ſcalped. After this they returned, with the two wounded Girls, to Adam Taſhler's, and ſaw a Woman, Jacob Allmong's Wife, with a Child, lying dead in the Road, and ſcalped. The Number of the Indians, they think, was between Fifteen and Twenty.

"I cannot deſcribe the deplorable Condition this poor Country is in; moſt of the Inhabitants of Allen's Town, and other Places, are fled from their Habitations. Many are in Bethlehem, and other Places of the Brethren, and others farther down the Country. I cannot aſcertain the Number killed, but think it exceeds Twenty----The People at Nazareth, and the other Places belonging to the Brethren, have put themſelves in the beſt Poſture of Defence they can; they keep a ſtrong Watch every Night, and hope, by the Bleſſing of God, if they are attacked, to make a good Stand."

In a Letter from the ſame County, of the Tenth Inſtant, the Number killed is ſaid to be Twenty-three, beſides a great many dangerouſly wounded; that the Inhabitants are in the utmoſt Diſtreſs and Confuſion, flying from their Places, ſome of them with hardly ſufficient to cover them; and that it was to be feared there were many Houſes, &c. burnt, and Lives loſt, that were not then known.----And by a Gentleman from the ſame Quarter we are informed, that it was reported, when he came away, that Yoſt's Mill, about eleven Miles from Bethlehem, was deſtroyed, and all the People that belonged to it, excepting one young Man, cut off.

It is with Pleaſure that we publiſh the following Extract, as it exhibits an Inſtance of public Spirit, that reflects Honour on our Country, and will, it is hoped, have no ſmall Influence in animating Numbers on our Frontiers to imitate ſo laudable an Example.

Extract of a Letter from Carliſle, October 3.

"As I am juſt returned from Aughwic, where I went to attend the Rendezvous, and ſee our ſmall Army, under Colonel Armſtrong, begin their March for the Great Iſland, I am thereby enabled to inform you, That on Friday, the 30th ult. about Ten o'Clock, the Colonel, and the Men under his Direction, deſigned againſt ſaid Iſland, to the Number of above 300, began their March, in high Spirits, from Fort Shirley, on Aughwic, and expected to reach, on the Monday Night following, ſo near the Place, as to make the Attack the next Morning.---Amongſt thoſe gone out on this Occaſion, are the following Voluntier Companies, viz. Captain Laughlin, of Big Spring, and 33 Men, all raiſed in Twenty-four Hours----Captain Patterſon, jun. and Captain Bedford, with Thirty Men each (theſe two Companies chiefly from about and below Carliſle) Captain Crawford, from the upper Part of the County, with Nineteen Men; and Captain Sharp, from above Shippenſburgh, with Fourteen Men; beſides ſeveral others that joined under commiſſioned Captains, as being better acquainted with them.----And it may, with great Juſtice, be ſaid, that the Flower of Cumberland County are gone out on this Expedition.---In my next I hope to give you ſome Account of the Event of this Undertaking; and, whatever it may be, yet it muſt be confeſſed the Deſign is good, and may be attended with Conſequences of great Advantage.---I am extremely ſorry we can, even yet, have no Premium for the Scalps of thoſe murdering Raſcals.---The Inhabitants, in general, ſhew a noble Spirit, and are daily providing themſelves with Arms for their Defence."

Extract of another Letter from Carliſle, October 6.

"I greatly fear the Communication between Fort Pitt and Ligonier is cut off again, as the Indians have been ſeen about Ligonier, and have killed one Man, and done ſome other Damage. ----It is now upwards of five Weeks ſince any Accounts from thence."

Captain Shaw, in a Brig from Jamaica for Cape-Fear, in North-Carolina, is loſt on Cape Florida; as is the Ship Alexander, Captain Johnſton, of and for London, and bound thither from Jamaica.

Captain Brookes, from New-Haven, laſt Friday ſaw a large Sloop aſhore about ten Miles this Side of Great Egg-Harbour; ſhe had a Round Houſe, and white Bottom; and a Number of Hogſheads, as the Captain thought, was ſeen on the Beach.

On Saturday Night laſt, after dark, Dr. Paſchall, of Darby, was ſtopt by four Men on the Lower Ferry Road, when one of them laid hold of his Horſe's Bridle, and demanded his Money; but upon whipping the Creature, he gave a ſudden Jerk, which, it is thought, threw the Fellow down, and he made his Eſcape.

Soon after, as one Thomas Cobb was coming to Town from the Lower Ferry, a Man jumped out from the Woods, ſtopt him, and bid him deliver; upon which Cobb gave him a Blow on the Hand, with which he held his Horſe, that made him let go his Hold, when he put on, and got off, but was endeavoured to be ſtopt by two other Men, and on looking back, ſaw a Fourth.

And, on Monday Night, George Rutter, and George Wilbert, of this City, Butchers, were attacked on the Wiſſahickon Road, about a Mile from Town, by two Men, who came ſuddenly upon them from behind a Hedge, with each a Gun in his Hand, which they preſented to their Breaſts, and bid them deliver their Money; when Rutter was robbed of his Watch; and Wilbert gave one of them his Pocket-book; but that on hearing a Horſe coming up to them from Town, the Robbers jumped over the Hedge, and made off towards the Woods.

N. B. The Maker's Name of Rutter's Watch is J. Morgan, Carmarthen; and if offered to Sale, is requeſted to be ſtopt.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

By the DUKE of CUMBERLAND Packet Boat, Capt. GOODRICH, arrived at NEW-YORK from FALMOUTH, we have the following ADVICES, viz.

ST. JAMES's, AUGUST 6.

THE following addreſs of the Truſtees of the College of Philadelphia has been preſented to his Majeſty, by the Reverend Dr. SMITH, Provoſt of that College, accompanied by Mr. INGLIS, one of the Truſtees, and Mr. POWELL, one of the Graduates, being introduced by the Lord of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in waiting. They were moſt graciouſly received, and had the honour to kiſs his Majeſty's hand.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY,

The humble ADDRESS of the Truſtees of the College, Academy, and Charitable School in the City of Philadelphia, in Pennſylvania.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

AMID the joyous acclamations of a grateful people, exulting in a happineſs derived from your Majeſty's moſt wiſe, juſt, and gentle adminiſtration, we your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the Truſtees of the College, Academy, and Charitable School, in the City of Philadelphia, beg leave to lay our ſincere and humble acknowledgments at your Majeſty's feet, and to expreſs the deep ſenſe we entertain of your royal condeſcending regard to the inſtitution under our government and direction.

Rendered incapable, by the ravages of war, of proſecuting our charitable deſign, which was begun, and has hitherto been carried on, by private benevolence, we found ourſelves under a neceſſity of applying to the Mother Country for ſuch aſſiſtance as we failed of obtaining here; and to give due weight and authority to our application, we humbly put ourſelves under your Majeſty's moſt gracious protection, by ſolliciting your letters patent for a general collection throughout the kingdom. It is with the warmeſt glow of gratitude that we reflect upon the princely condeſcenſion with which your Majeſty vouchſafed us this royal grant, and recommended it to the encouragement of all your loving ſubjects, by an inſtance of your own royal munificence.

But whilſt we are thus imperfectly expreſſing our unfeigned acknowledgments of your Majeſty's royal goodneſs, permit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, to embrace this opportunity of preſenting our hearty congratulations to your Majeſty and your royal Conſort, our gracious Queen, upon the increaſe of your royal Line, by the auſpicious Birth of a Prince of Wales. Long may your Majeſty be preſerved to bleſs your affectionate people, by your mild and prudent government, and to inſtruct and animate your royal heir, by the wiſdom of your counſels, and the luſtre of your example.

And as the eyes of the whole world are fixed in admiration upon your Majeſty, and acknowledgments and applauſes are poured forth before your throne, from every part of your extenſive dominions, for reſtoring peace to contending nations, for putting a ſtop to the effuſion of chriſtian blood, and relieving your ſubjects from the burthen of a long and expenſive war, we humbly crave your Majeſty's favourable acceptance of our unfeigned congratulations upon this glorious occaſion. Situated as we are in the center of a territory, which has long been the theatre of deſolation and bloodſhed, we cannot but feel a large ſhare of that general joy, which is now diffuſed throughout your Majeſty's American dominions, upon the concluſion of a peace ſo honourable to our nation, ſo peculiarly beneficial to us. By this auſpicious event, we are prompted not only to look upon your Majeſty as a conqueror, triumphing over your enemies, and giving ſtrength and increaſe to your ſubjects and dominions, but to revere you as a bleſſed inſtrument, in the hands of Providence, of planting at once the Chriſtian and the Britiſh banners, the banners of liberty and true religion, in the remoteſt corners of this weſtern world, among nations wandering beneath the night of Pagan error, or deluded by falſe principles into Popiſh ſlavery and ſuperſtition. To conquer and to civilize, has hitherto been deemed the higheſt effort of human heroiſm. But to compleat the glory of your Majeſty's reign, Heaven ſeems to have reſerved it for your Majeſty, not to conquer and civilize only, but, by ſpreading throughout your wide extended conqueſts the knowledge of Chriſt's kingdom, even to bleſs millions of mankind with the comforts of true religion, and the goſpel means of ſalvation.

Encouraged and animated by theſe proſpects and conſiderations, and bound by all the ties of duty and gratitude, we truſt that nothing will be wanting, on our part, to render our inſtitution eminently ſerviceable for theſe exalted purpoſes; and it ſhall be our earneſt endeavour, as far as our influence extends, carefully to provide that the principles of true religion, good government, and uſeful learning, together with a love and veneration for the Britiſh conſtitution, and an unſhaken loyalty and affection to your Majeſty's perſon, and your illuſtrious houſe, be conſtantly inculcated in the minds of the youth placed under our inſpection.

Signed by order, and in behalf of the Truſtees, at a meeting held in the College-Hall, at Philadelphia, the 27th of May, 1763, and ſealed with their Public Seal.

RICHARD PETERS, Preſident of the Board.

Hague, July 15. The preparations for ſuccouring the colony of Berbice continue; and the officers, who are to command, will be appointed in a few days.

It is ſaid, that the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, has taken a definitive reſolution to demoliſh the fortifications of Dreſden, his capital, as the moſt effectual means for preventing, in ſucceeding times, a repetition of thoſe calamities which it ſuffered during the laſt war.

Altena, July 12. According to ſome accounts, many inhabitants of Poland are preparing to retire to Sileſia, from an apprehenſion of that kingdom's being ſoon to be made the ſeat of war.

Hamburgh, July 15. The French deſerters in this quarter of Germany are very impatient to learn from the Miniſter of their nation in this city, what their Court intends ſhall be their fate. This Miniſter feeds them in the mean while with the hopes of a general pardon: If that ſhould be granted, it is computed that France would immediately recover 35,000 men, which are diſperſed in Germany, and who are moſt deſirous to return to their own country, as moſt of them, being bred to no buſineſs, are in a ſtarving condition.

Dantzick, July 2. There is handed about here the following letter to Count Czapſki, from the King of Pruſſia, dated Berlin, June 24, 1763.

"M de Count Czapſki, I know nothing of the cauſe of the complaints contained in the letter you have ſent to me, dated the 20th of May. As for the reſt, I hope you are now eaſy: I have recalled the detachments of my troops that were in Poland: I have cauſed ſeveral vagabonds to be taken up, who without any authority from me, have been guilty of ſeveral exceſſes; and I have given the moſt preciſe orders that no inhabitant of Poland ſhall be moleſted by my troops. FREDERICK."

Warſaw, June 6. The news of a body of Ruſſians having entered this kingdom, was groundleſs: Fifty thouſand of thoſe troops are indeed poſted on their own frontiers, viz. 20,000 on the ſide of Elizabeth-Horob, and 30,000 near Kyon.

Vienna, July 16. It is reported, that on Thurſday a courier from Conſtantinople brought the agreeable news of the renewal of our truce with the Ottoman Porte.

Lucca, July 11. A capital of four millions and a half of French livres is depoſited at Turin, by the Moſt Chriſtian King, in conſideration of which the King of Sardinia conſents that the Duchy of Placentia ſhall paſs in a direct line to the heirs male of Don Philip, and, in default of males in a direct line, to the Princeſſes; and in caſe of the extinction of all heirs of both ſexes, it is to be returned to the houſe of Savoy, on reſtoring the above-mentioned equivalent to France.

Florence, July 16. We talk here of a treaty of commerce between this county and the republic of Genoa; and we have likewiſe a report that there is a negotiation on the carpet, for ceſſion of the kingdom of Corſica to the Archduke Leopold; but upon what terms we do not yet know.

Lucca, July 16. It is reported here, that a congreſs will be held in ſome town of Tuſcany, between the Prince of Lichtenſtein on the part of the Emperor and the Empreſs Queen; the Lieutenant-general Chevalier de Muy on the part of France, and a miniſter from Spain; to treat of ſome changes to be made in Italy, and of a perpetual league of affinity and friendſhip between the houſes of Auſtria and Bourbon. The pragmatic ſanction will be guarantied, and the laſt hand put to all thoſe treaties; the execution of which was prevented by the death of the Emperor Charles VI.

Hamburgh, July 19. The King of Pruſſia has ſigned an agreement with the Jews at Spandau, by which they engage, in conſideration of a profit of 5 per cent. to collect all the baſe money, iſſued the late war, and to furniſh his Pruſſian Majeſty with good coin, to the amount of 30 millions, by the end of the preſent year. In conſequence of this agreement, his Pruſſian Majeſty has cauſed 800,000 pounds weight of ſilver to be delivered to them, which lately arrived here in ingots, having been purchaſed in England and Holland for his Majeſty's account. This work, in which the Jews of all the great places of trade are concerned, makes money extremely ſcarce, and has already riſen the intereſt of it to twelve per cent.

Brunſwick, July 22. The perſons who accompany the Hereditary Prince to England are all named.

Dantzick, July 27. Four thouſand Ruſſians have lately paſſed upon the frontiers of Poland without committing the leaſt hoſtilities; only as the Poles at firſt made a difficulty of furniſhing them with what they wanted, the Ruſſians obliged them to do it, at the ſame time paying them ready money for every thing. This corps ſeems to be marching towards Courland.

Vienna, July 25. Notwithſtanding the renewed truce with the Turks, and the aſſurances of the Grand Signior's intention to live in friendſhip with the Empreſs Queen, the preparations of the Ottoman Porte ſeem to give our Court uneaſineſs, and probably gave occaſion to the new levies that are making throughout moſt of the dominions of the Houſe of Auſtria. To the ſame cauſe we aſcribe the reſolution that has been taken to ſend large quantities of ammunition and proviſions to Hungary. Mean while ſome people, who pretend to be well informed, aſſert, that this Court has no reaſon to take any umbrage at the Turkiſh preparations, which are occaſioned only by a coolneſs between the Porte and the Court of Ruſſia, and the concern which the Grand Signior takes in the affairs of Poland.

Altena, July 22. Some Pruſſian officers are come to this city, and to Hamburgh, to beat up for voluntiers. If the French deſerters, who ſwarm in this part of Germany, receive not ſoon ſome favourable news from their Miniſter at Hamburgh, it is believed moſt of them will inliſt in the ſervice of Pruſſia.

Paris, July 29. A Reſolution hath been taken to make a general reform of our land forces; the regiments which are to ſtand, are all the old Royal Regiments; thoſe of the Princes, and thoſe which bear the name of their Provinces. Thoſe which derive their origin or their name from their Colonels, will be wholly diſbanded, and even of the Scotch regiments. But if the miniſtry are labouring on one hand, by ſuch regulations as theſe, to redreſs the finances of the ſtate, they ſeem on the other, to ſpare no coſt to reſtore the Royal navy. It is reckoned that, with the ſhips already launched, the number that will be fit for the ſea by the end of the year, will not be leſs than eighty.

Vienna, July 27. On the 19th inſtant, after a very thick fog at Preſbourg, in Hungary, there was a violent ſhower of rain, in which there fell many thouſands of large flying ants.

Genoa, July 23. Yeſterday arrived a Veſſel from Baſtia, with advice that general Matra having, on the 18th, attacked the entrenchments of the rebels at Furiani, was repulſed with the loſs of 300 men, killed, wounded, or priſoners. Four officers were ſlain on the ſpot, and many more wounded. We are impatient for the particulars of this event: Mean while the government has diſpatched to Corſica ſome veſſels with warlike ſtores.

Hague, July 29. Marſhal Daun, in whom the Empreſs Queen continues to place entire confidence, has propoſed, that for the greater ſafety of her Majeſty's dominions, four armies ſhould be kept on foot even in time of peace, viz. one of 15,000 in the dutchy of Milan; one of 25,000 in the Auſtrian Netherlands; a third of 40,000 in Bohemia and Moravia; and a fourth of 35 or 40,000 in Hungary, towards the frontiers of Turkey. Marſhal Daun has alſo propoſed the putting all the fortreſſes in a proper poſture of defence; and theſe propoſals have been the more reliſhed, that he ſhewed, at the ſame time, the danger to which her Majeſty might ere long be expoſed, in conſequence of the alliances and changes of ſyſtem, which are in agitation underhand at different Courts.

Hague, Auguſt 3. Advice has been received from Amſterdam, that the brothers N. eminent Merchants of that city, are bankrupts; which occaſioned a great commotion among all the other Merchants. The ſum they have failed for exceeds, we are told, four million of Dutch florins (above 330,000 guineas.) The allarm was the greater, as the Bank and the Lombard were kept open, at the requeſt of ſeveral Bankers and Merchants, all Saturday, and till two o' clock on Sunday morning; of which there was no example before.

Laſt Monday a Spaniſh Miniſter had a conference with the Preſident of the States of Holland, which occaſioned at firſt much ſpeculation; but we are now informed, that it related only to the trade which the Hollanders have carried on in ſome harbours of Spain; by bartering goods for cocoa on board Spaniſh ſhips, before the goods were landed. The Spaniſh Miniſter has deſired that no ſuch thing be done for the future.

Amſterdam, July 29. It is ſaid, that the chief of the rebel negroes at the Berbices, was ſome years in this city, where his maſter had him taught to read and write; it is likewiſe ſaid, that he has carried off a beautiful Engliſh young lady, the daughter of a very rich man, who has been long ſettled at the Berbices, and whoſe whole family are murdered.

Paris, Auguſt 3. We learn from Malaga, of the 12th paſt, that the ſmall ſquadron which ſailed from Toulon the 29th of June, was put in there to water, and would ſoon put to ſea again, to cruize on the Salletines, which infeſt thoſe ſeas. Three frigates are to cruize between Tetuan and Oran; three between Oran and Algiers; and two off the bar of Sallee.

Hamburgh, Aug. 5. By the bankruptcy of two of the greateſt houſes in Europe, two houſes in this city have juſt now loſt, one 500,000 marcs, the other 600,000.

Paris, Aug. 4. The Commandants of the ſeveral regiments are ordered to grant no more furloughs; which order occaſions the more ſpeculation, as the recruiting of men is begun again in this city; but it is carried on without violence or ſurpriſe. Many young fellows inliſt to avoid ſtarving. There are multitudes out of employment. Many people of quality, and others, retrench their expences, becauſe the times are not what they have been.

Malaga, July 15. We learn from Gibraltar, that the Emperor of Morocco is gone from Fez to put himſelf at the head of an army of 70,000 men. His projects are not known. It is reported that his deſign is only to ſtrike an awe into his own ſubjects.

Hague, Auguſt 5. There ſeems to be little doubt of ſeeing a new court and a new power raiſed in Italy. The Archduke Leopold is to be Great Duke of Tuſcany by his father's ceſſion, and King of Corſica by purchaſe, and perhaps by election; and Count Roſenberg is going extraordinary Ambaſſador to Madrid, to demand for him the ſecond Infanta, while Prince Lichtenſtein forms for him his court, his houſhold, and his eſtabliſhment at Florence.

Paris, Auguſt 5. Our miniſtry have conſtantly in view the reeſtabliſhment of the marine. There is a prodigious number of workmen employed in all the dock-yards of the kingdom. We reckon 3000 in the ſingle port of Marſeilles, 4000 at Breſt and Toulon, and as many in proportion in the other ports of the kingdom. The court of Madrid labour with the ſame view, being determined at all events to render her marine formidable, though at the ſame time without any prejudice to the laſt treaty of peace, which is obſerved by Spain as well as France with all the good faith poſſible.

LONDON, July 19.

The Hague Gazette ſays, that letters from Warſaw contain ſome particulars, which if true, the tranquility of Poland will ſoon be diſturbed by a foreign invaſion.

Some letters from France ſay, that we ſhall ſoon ſee the marine of that kingdom upon a more reſpectable footing than ever; and that for this end the King will diſcharge all perſons belonging to it, and diſſolve it for 24 hours, that he may give it an entire new form, and nominate officers purely on account of their merit, without regard to birth.

July 21. Letters from Berlin ſtill ſay, that a treaty of alliance, and of commerce, between that Court and the Court of Peterſburgh, is on the carpet; and that it was reported, that the King of Pruſſia had reſolved to trace out a camp for 70 or 80,000 Men in Sileſia, and to make a conſiderable augmentation in his troops; for which end he was enliſting men even in Weſtphalia, and on the Lower Rhine.

Letters from Hamburgh pretend to ſay, that his Pruſſian Majeſty is diſpleaſed that England ſhould put off the payment of the arrears of the ſubſidy ſhe engaged to pay him during the war; and that he had lately expreſſed his diſſatisfaction on this head.

Theſe letters from Hamburg add as follow: "All our accounts from Berlin announce, that the King of Pruſſia is going to augment his troops, and that it is ſuppoſed there are great projects in agitation. Our letters from Vienna hold the ſame language; they poſitively aſſert that a reſolution has been taken in Council not to diſband any part of their forces; but that, on the contrary, orders are given for raiſing four or five new regiments."

They write from the Hague, that a camp is to be traced in the plain of Maeſtricht for 20,000 Dutch troops; and that they are preparing the field equipages of the Prince Stadtholder, who will ſet up his tent in this camp.

Theſe letters add, that the people of Holland, who pretend to be beſt informed, give out that there is at preſent a greater probability than ever of ſeeing the old ſyſtem ſoon revived, and the treaties which ſubſiſted for ſo many years between the Court of Vienna and the Maritime Powers, happily renewed.

Letters from Paris, by the way of Holland, adviſe, that a camp is actually marking out in the plain of Lance, between Arras and Liſle, for 60,000 French troops.

The ſame advices add, that ſince the concluſion of the peace, thirty new ſhips and frigates have been launched in France; ſix of which are to carry 130 guns, and ſome others from 70 to 100 guns.

July 23. Advices from the Hague of the 15th inſt. inform us, that beſides the troops already ſent to Berbice, a reſolution is taken to ſend 700 regulars more.

Letters from Hamburgh adviſe, that it was the general opinion there, that the court of Vienna would ſoon be involved in broils: That the principal foundation, however, for this opinion was, that the Empreſs-Queen was levying men with as [illegible]

ligence, as if ſhe were actually at war; and, that it was reported, that officers would ſoon arrive both at Hamburgh and at Altena, to raiſe men for the Auſtrian ſervice.

Private letters from the Hague mention, that the Deputies of the States General had lately had a conference with Gen. Yorke, on the differences with the Court of London that had ariſen during the war, about the commerce and navigation of the Hollanders; and that the General had aſſured the Deputies, that as ſoon as his Court ſhould have ſettled with the Courts of Verſailles, Madrid, Liſbon, and Berlin, all that related to the peace, juſtice ſhould be done to the owners of the Dutch ſhips and goods that had been ſtopt or detained in the ports of Great Britain during the war.

July 28. Various are the conjectures concerning the preſent fall of ſtocks; ſome ſay it is occaſioned by ſome diſputes about delivering up the conquered places.

On the other hand it is rumoured, that it has been ſignified to ſome merchants, that the Government will probably have no occaſion to borrow money for the ſervice of the year enſuing; or if it ſhould, the ſum will not exceed one million.

July 30. The complement of men in his Majeſty's ſhips on foreign ſtations, are all reduced to the number uſual in times of peace.

Tueſday the Exeter, a new ſhip of war, of 64 guns, was launched from Mr. Martin's yard at Chatham.

A treaty betwern the Kings of France, Spain and Sardinia, has lately been ſigned at Paris; by which the King of Sardinia relinquiſhes, in favour of Don Philip, the claim he has by Art. VII. of the treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle in 1748, to the dutchy of Placentia, in conſideration of an annuity from France of 328,000 livres (14,350 l. ſterl.) for ſecuring the payment of which, the capital of that ſum is to be lodged at Turin.

The Grand Signior is ſending an Ambaſſador with magnificent preſents to the King of Pruſſia. The Ottoman Porte hath hitherto never before ſent Ambaſſadors but to Emperors of Germany, and to Kings of France.

Brigadier Murray is appointed Governor of Canada. Colonel James Grant, of Eaſt Florida. George Johnſon, Eſq; of Weſt Florida. And Colonel Melville, of Grenada, and the Neutral Iſlands.

Auguſt 2. A letter from Rome, in the Utrecht Gazette, adviſes, that Prince Clement, of Saxony, to put an end to the diſſentions and animoſities at Liege, has, in a letter to the Pope, relinquiſhed his claim to the ſee of Liege.

Auguſt 4. Lord Baltimore, Proprietary of Maryland, and Meſſieurs Penn, Proprietaries of Pennſylvania, have appointed Mr. Maſon, and Mr. Dickſon, two eminent mathematicians, to ſettle the bounds of their reſpective ſettlements in thoſe colonies, and put a final iſſue to a diſpute, which has ſubſiſted on that head ever ſince 1693.

Auguſt 6. We hear that three letters, wrote in the Indian language and characters, luckily fell into our hands, and have been brought over by the laſt ſhips. They contain full proof that certain perſons had excited the late Nabob to riſe againſt the Engliſh; and had the ſcheme taken effect, the Engliſh would probably have loſt all their ſettlements in thoſe parts, and a ſcene might have followed equalling that of Amboyna, in the beginning of the laſt century, and Batavia in the preſent.

We are informed that copies of the three intercepted letters wrote by the late Nabob, have been remitted abroad. The parties ſuſpected of exciting the Indians againſt the Company's ſettlements in thoſe parts, pretend, in their own vindication, that the letters are not genuine.

The Bank of England reſolved yeſterday to lend money at 4 per cent. on the receipts of the laſt loan to the Government.

It is certain there will be a fleet of obſervation fitted out in a ſhort time, and that Admiral Tyrrel and Sir William Burnaby will ſet out in ten days at fartheſt.

They write from the Hague, that copies of a remarkable letter from the King of Pruſſia to the Empreſs Queen are handed about there. The Monarch (ſay they) begins his letter with averring, that he accounts his reconciliation with her Imperial Majeſty as the happieſt hour of his life. He declares that he deſires nothing more ardently than to make the peace durable; and that if contrary to all expectations, any thing diſagreeable to her Imperial Majeſty ſhould happen, he entreats her not to liſten or rely immediately on the opinion of her confidants, but to write to him about it directly; and that upon the receipt of the letter, he will give the moſt preciſe orders for ſettling every thing to the Satisfaction of her Imperial Majeſty. Then the King makes the Empreſs Queen obſerve, that during the laſt war there was a reciprocal trial of ſkill and ſtrength for all the miſchief that could poſſibly be done: That it is now time it ſhould be ſucceeded by an eagerneſs to do each other as much good as poſſible: That he expected this from her Imperial Majeſty, and aſſures her that he is now intent upon giving her the moſt ſtriking proof of his regard for her intereſt.

Auguſt 9. The following is a liſt of the ſea officers appointed to command his Majeſty's ſquadrons in the different parts of the world, viz. Jamaica, and the Windward Iſlands, Sir William Burnaby, Knt. Rear Admiral of the Red. Barbados, and the Leeward Iſlands, Richard Tyrrell, Eſq; Rear Admiral of the White. North-America, Right Honourable Lord Colville, Rear Admiral of the White. Mediterranean, Honourable Commodore Hervey. Coaſt of Africa, Commodore Cleveland.

On Saturday laſt his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, attended by Lord Cadogan, Sir William Boothby, and the Hon. Captain Hervey, went to Erith, and hoiſted his flag on board the Centurion, in order to ſail up the Mediterranean.

The plantations in the Grenades already ſold on the ſpot amount to 9,610,000 livres, or 280,290 l. ſterling; excluſive of what has been ſold in France, which may be of nearly equal value.

The French Governor has declared St. Lucia a free port.

It is reported, that one cauſe of our preſent armament by ſea, is on account that the French have already begun to infringe the articles of peace, by ſome proceedings at Newfoundland.

We hear that Sir George Colebrook, Bart. banker in Threadneedle-ſtreet, has laid out upwards of 100,000 l. in purchaſing lands in the conquered iſlands in the Weſt-Indies.

Auguſt 11. We are informed, that all the Engliſh noblemen at Paris, are on their return to England.

Extract of a letter from Frankfort, dated July 20.

In my laſt I mentioned the King of Pruſſia's officers ſeizing the Engliſh magazines at Minden, &c. This was not done with any great degree of politeneſs.---When the officers firſt took poſſeſſion of the magazines, they promiſed they would not touch any article contained in them, but only ſecure them under ſeal, till his Pruſſian Majeſty's ſubjects were paid the juſt demands they had on the Engliſh Government.---Counſellor Roſa, who furniſhed ſome of the troops with neceſſaries, has a claim amounting to 84,000 ducats, which was not liquidated when Comptroller P-----ll was in theſe parts, becauſe the debt was contracted before his arrival. ---It was chiefly at Roſa's requiſition that the magazines were ſeized.---Though the officers promiſed only to ſecure the effects, they proceeded, however, when they were in their power, to ſell them to the beſt bidder; in one of them they found 12,000 ducats in ſpecie, but being baſe coin, ſuch as was current during the war, it was of little value."

Mention having been made in the Papers, that there remain about 80 Engliſh priſoners in the Caſtle at Bayonne, and who are, if poſſible, worſe treated than our countrymen were during the war, and have a ſtronger guard ſet over them; on enquiry, we find that they are hoſtages, left for the ſecurity of the ranſom money of divers merchant ſhips taken by the enemy during the late war: There are ſeveral more priſoners on the ſame account in other parts of France.

But we are aſſured, by authority, that tho' all the Britiſh priſoners of war which were taken by the French juſt before the concluſion of the peace, are not yet arrived in England, that on receipt of the firſt authentic accounts of their being confined at Bayonne, meaſures were immediately taken to fetch them home, and a veſſel ſent thither for that purpoſe, the return of which is daily expected.

Extract of a letter from the Havannah, June 26.

"The fleet from Vera Cruz to Old Spain, paſſed by, without calling, the 16th inſtant. It had on board about fourteen millions of dollars in gold and ſilver, and four millions of merchandize."

We hear that twelve merchants, eight of whom are Jews, at Amſterdam, have lately failed. One Dutch houſe is ſaid to have failed for no leſs than 800,000 l.

Auguſt 13. The laſt letters from Poland brought accounts of two great fires; one at the town of Kobelin in that kingdom, where the Roman Catholick churches, and all the houſes in that place, were deſtroyed; and the other at Dana, in Ruſſian Lithuania, where about 700 houſes, with ſeveral monaſteries and churches, were reduced to aſhes.

It is ſaid that the Bankruptcies at Amſterdam were occaſioned by gaming in the Engliſh Funds.

There are 25 eminent Merchants who have broke at Amſterdam; but we have not yet heard of any Merchants in London being greatly affected thereby.

Letters from Leghorn ſay that the Genoeſe, after having loſt Colonel Kinick, the Captains Gandini and Mariotti, and a great number of troops, before Furiani, had been obliged at length to raiſe the ſiege.

The accounts received to day from Holland are more favourable in relation to the failures that have happened there. Some of the Houſes are going on again; and the others, it is thought, will ſoon be ſupported ſo as to be able to do the ſame. No Engliſh Houſe is now talked of. Some great Houſes at Hamburgh are ſaid to be affected for the preſent by theſe failures.

We hear that the French are actually fitting out at Breſt and Toulon, thirty ſhips of the line of battle, and are manning them with the greateſt expedition poſſible.

By letters from Hanover, by yeſterday's mail, we learn that a reſolution has been taken to keep on foot in that Electorate 12,000 regular troops, and 20000 militia, and that 6000 men of the train of artillery, who had been diſcharged, are to be inliſted again.

They write from Paris, that three new 60 gun ſhips are ready to be launched at Breſt, and that they continue building men of war in all the ports of France.

Yeſterday an expreſs arrived from general Yorke at the Hague, and we are informed that the Dutch armaments will occaſion ſome queſtions to be aſked, to which a categorical anſwer will be inſiſted on.

It is ſaid ſome diſputes have have ariſen about the ballance due to this nation for the maintenance of the French priſoners,

Fourteen men of war of the line will be ſpeedily put in commiſſion, and, it is ſaid, will be ſtationed as guard ſhips.

Yeſterday the commiſſioners of the navy contracted for a ſhip to carry ſtores, &c. to Halifax.

Part of a letter from the Hague, July 29,

"As the Engliſh, ever ſince the differences between the India Companies of the two nations, have conſtantly hampered the trade of the Hollanders in India, particularly at Ceylon, the Nabob of which they have entirely gained over to their intereſt, a Motion will be made in the Aſſembly of the States of Holland, to ſend Orders to Count Walderen, the Dutch Miniſter in England, to make freſh Remonſtrances to the Engliſh Miniſtry, and endeavour to ſettle, once for all, the Differences between the two Nations."

It is ſaid Orders are ſent to Portſmouth for equipping a ſtrong Squadron with the utmoſt expedition, which it is thought is intended for the Eaſt-Indies, to watch the Motions of the Dutch, who are going to ſend a large Reinforcement to that Part of the Globe. It is ſaid that Admiral Sir George Pococke will ſoon have the Command of this Squadron.

They are very buſy at the Admiralty and War Offices, in getting ready a Number of new Commiſſions for ſigning.

It is confidently reported, that ſome advices of great importance were received on Saturday night at St. James's, by way of Paris, which occaſioned the ſummoning of a cabinet council on Sunday, which ſat ſo long as to detain his Majeſty near an hour and half from going to chapel.

We are aſſured that there are two houſes in London which remit monthly, for the uſe of our Engliſh nobility and gentry at Paris, 30,000 l.

We hear, that the French fiſhermen and ours, on the Banks of Newfoundland, are already beginning to quarrel about the limits, in which they ſhould follow their reſpective occupations.----Which we ſuppoſe is owing to the impoſſibility of ſetting up land-marks in the ſea.

We are credibly informed that the French have now 30 ſhips of the line building in different ports in the Baltick, from 60 to 90 guns each, which are by contract to be compleated before next May.

There are letters in town which mention, that a conſpiracy againſt the Empreſs of Ruſſia had been diſcovered at Peterſburgh. They give no particulars, only that the leading perſons in it are ſeized.

Private letter from the Hague, Auguſt 9.

"They write from Amſterdam, that the bankruptcy of Meſſ. Neuville continued to make the more noiſe, as their apprehenſions of its being followed by ſome others had proved but too true, no leſs than eighteen houſes having ſucceſſively failed ſince.-----It is whiſpered here, that the great Swediſh factory at Amſterdam, belonging to M. de G. is alſo on the point of giving way, and is privately making up its books; if this ſhould happen it will occaſion above fifty more bankruptcies, that being one of the moſt conſiderable houſes in Holland.

"Our letters by the laſt poſt from Brandenburgh adviſe, that the King of Pruſſia has reſolved to aſſemble an army in the neighbourhood of Berlin, Rupin, Potſdam, and Spandau, which he will review in perſon in the beginning of October."

Auguſt 16. We hear an expreſs arrived yeſterday from Dublin, with an account that the Oak Boys were entirely diſperſed by the prudent management of the Nobility and principal Gentry of the ſeveral counties, and were all gone home.

By an expreſs arrived from Holland on Saturday evening we are informed, that thirty-one houſes in Amſterdam, and fourteen at Hamburgh, have failed; and it was expected many more would follow in Stockholm and other great cities on the continent.

We are informed that ſeveral men of war which are to be ſtationed in the Mediterranean, are ordered round to Portſmouth by the latter end of this week.

We hear that 40 ſhips of the line will ſhortly be put in commiſſion.

A perſon lately arrived from France, and who was at Dunkirk when the works were begun to be demoliſhed, reports that they removed the ſtones with the greateſt care and caution; and that they marked and numbered them, as if it were intended ſooner or later to replace them.

Letters from Newfoundland, by the William and Ann, Capt. Churchill, which arrived at Pool the 8th inſtant, make no mention of any difference there with the French; but on the contrary they aſſert, that ſince the peace, the Engliſh were carrying on the fiſhery with good ſucceſs.

On account of the late failures in Holland, and application of the merchants here, the letters by the Dutch mail, which arrived yeſterday about one, were delivered out laſt night about five o' clock.

We are informed, that the moſt conſiderable merchants and bankers at Hamburgh have entered into a voluntary aſſociation, whereby they engage, by ſubſcription, to ſupport each other under any misfortune which the late bankruptcies at Amſterdam may occaſion, and to ſhare the loſſes in common amongſt themſelves. Large ſums have been ſubſcribed for that purpoſe, and 'tis hoped this example will be followed by the cities of Amſterdam and Berlin. In conſequence of theſe meaſures the bank of Hamburgh (which had been ſhut up for ſome time) was opened again.

It is now ſaid, that the Parliament will meet for the diſpatch of buſineſs the latter end of November.

This morning, at half an hour after ten, her Majeſty was ſafely delivered of a Prince at her Palace in St. James's park. Her Majeſty and the young Prince are both as can be expected.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, Auguſt 9.

"The people of this country cannot help attending to the warlike preparations in ſeveral States, particularly thoſe of the King of Pruſſia, who is inliſting men every where. Some ſay that this Prince arms in order to take vengeance on England, by marching troops towards Hanover, if the Britiſh Court ſhould perſiſt in refuſing to pay the remainder of the ſubſidy owing to him during the war. Others think that his Pruſſian Majeſty recruits his forces only to be prepared in caſe of any unforeſeen event, and particularly with a view to what may ſoon be expected from the tickliſh ſtate of a certain Prince's health. The encampment which his Pruſſian Majeſty has ordered, was at firſt ſuppoſed to be only a camp of pleaſure, but orders being juſt now iſſued for all abſent officers to join their regiments immediately, the deſign of this encampment, it is feared, will prove ſomewhat more than mere pleaſure."

Part of a private letter from the Hague, Auguſt 12.

"Since the bankrupcy of Neuville, and the report that M. Grilles would be forced to ſtop, Amſterdam has been in the greateſt conſternation; every man diſtruſts his neighbour ſo much that no buſineſs is done on Change. Neuville's bankruptcy is ſo manifeſtly fraudulent, that the ſafe-conduct which he aſked of the State, has been flatly refuſed."

Extract of a letter from the Havannah, July 9.

"We have been three days under the government of Aricla, who behaves very civilly hitherto. It is ſurprizing what a change there is already in the market. Our ſtore is now full of Spaniards, who are no longer afraid of ſhewing their dollars. Oh! what the trade of Great-Britain in this part of the world has ſuffered from rapaciouſneſs."

BOSTON, October 10.

We hear from New-London, that on Monday laſt died there Mr. TIMOTHY GREEN, Printer, aged 60 Years, formerly in Partneriſhip with Mr. SAMUEL KNEELAND, of this Town, but lately carried on the Buſineſs in New-London. He was of a very affable, courteous and benevolent Diſpoſition, beloved by all his Acquaintance, which was very extenſive, and his Death greatly lamented.

NEW-JERSEY, October 4.

Several robberies have been committed within a few days paſt at Newark, Elizabeth-Town and Raway.---It is ſaid ſome perſons have been committed on ſuſpicion; and it is hoped juſtice may take place. Mean while, this ſhould caution people to be a little more careful, as great numbers of ſtragglers are about the country.

NEW-YORK, October 13.

His Excellency General Monckton, our Governor, arrived at Weymouth, on the 27th of July, in 27 Days Paſſage.

We hear he was well received by his Majeſty.

From private Letters, by the Packet, we learn, That the national Diſcontent ſeemed rather to increaſe than abate; and it was thought the Miniſtry would ſoon be changed; that the Armaments preparing by the Dutch, and ſeveral Particulars of their Conduct, with the Circumſtances of Affairs between us and them, give us great Reaſon to expect a Rupture with them in a ſhort Time, for which Preparations ſeem to be making.---And if this ſhould happen, that it will probably bring on a general War again.--That it has been found neceſſary to keep up a conſiderable military Force, which had lately been augmented, and is likely to be more ſo.---That therefore the Taxes were continued very high, and paid unwillingly;---That the Miniſtry are greatly embarraſſed by the Indian War, which engages the publick Attention at preſent more than any other Object.---That Mr. Wilkes was gone to France, which his Enemies repreſented as a Flight; but that he was ſoon expected back, and that, it was thought, he would gain his Cauſes againſt the Miniſtry.---That the Demolition of the Fort and Harbour of Dunkirk, which, it was ſaid, had been done ſo effectually, that it could not be made ſerviceable in many Years, is really executed in ſo ſlight a Manner, that it may be reinſtated in three Weeks or a Month.

On Monday laſt arrived the Sardine Sloop of War, Capt. Hawker, in 9 Weeks and three Days from Falmouth, reported to be ſtationed here for three Years.

The Hornet Sloop of War, Capt. Montgomery, was lying at Plymouth, likewiſe bound to this Place.

October 17. Saturday laſt Captain Seymour, in a Sloop, and a Schooner, from Newbern, in North Carolina, arrived here.

The 31ſt of Auguſt, in Lat. 25, Long. 59, Captain Seymour fell in with a Double-decked Oak-built Brig, overſet: She had a Horſe Head, painted white, both Maſts and Bowſprit gone, a red Bottom, and ſeemed new.

The ſame Day his Majeſty's Frigate the Coventry, the Hon. ARCHIBALD KENNEDY, Eſq; Commander, arrived here from England.

PHILADELPHIA, October 20.

On Friday laſt the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province met here, when ISAAC NORRIS, Eſq; was unanimouſly choſen Speaker for the enſuing Year.

Extract of a Letter from Virginia, October 12.

"The Captains Moffat and Philips, poſted on Jackſon's River, in Auguſta County, were ſurpriſed, with Sixty Men, by a Number of Indians, and totally routed, on the Thirtieth of laſt Month; tho', notwithſtanding this Stroke, the Savages, in general, have met with great Loſs on the Frontier of Virginia.----Captain Field, with about 100 Voluntiers, from my Department, joins Major Campbell in eſcorting the Convoy to Fort Pitt."

Extract of a Letter from Lancaſter, October 13.

"The Paxton Voluntiers are returned---They went as far as the Great Iſland, but met with no Indians---They deſtroyed all the Houſes, and above 300 Acres of fine Corn, &c.---Colonel Armſtrong, and his Party, proceeded Twenty Miles farther, and are not yet returned.

Extract of a Letter from Fort Bedford, October 8,

"This Day the Remains of a brave Officer, Lieutenant RICHARDS, of the Provincials, was buried here; he was killed and ſcalped about five Miles from the Garriſon---The Indians are ſeen every Day---This Moment a Boy was taken in View of the Garriſon; and, at the ſame Time, a Siſter of his wounded, but not mortally---'Tis remarkable this Boy was taken this Year before on the ſame Spot by the Enemy, but made his Eſcape from them."

The Brig Lydia, Captain Callender, we hear, will ſail down on Tueſday next for London.

To the Printers of the PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestic.

PHILADELPHIA.

An ACT to prohibit the Selling of GUNS, GUNPOWDER, or other WARLIKE STORES, to the INDIANS.

WHEREAS several Tribes of Indians, for some Time past, have perfidiously made Incursions within the Frontiers of this Province, and have perpetrated many cruel and barbarous Murders on the Inhabitants thereof, and it must be, in the present Circumstance of Affairs, of dangerous Consequence to supply the said Indians with Guns, Gunpowder, or other Warlike Stores; for Prevention whereof, Be it enacted by the Honourable JAMES HAMILTON, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor, under the Honourable THOMAS PENN, and RICHARD PENN, Esquires, true and absolute Proprietaries of the Province of Pennsylvania, and Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex, upon Delaware, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Representatives of the Freemen of the said Province, in General Assembly met, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Passing of this Act, if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall, directly or indirectly, give to sell, barter or exchange, with any Indian or Indians whatsoever, any Guns, Gunpowder, Shot, Bullets, Lead, or other Warlike Stores, without Licence from the Commander in Chief of the King's Forces in those Parts, or from the Governor or Commander in Chief of this Province for the Time being, first had and obtained, every such Person or Persons so offending, being thereof legally convicted in any County Court of Quarter Sessions within this Province, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Hundred Pounds, one Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety thereof to the Governor or Commander in Chief of this Province for the Time being, and shall furthermore be whipt with Thirty-nine Lashes on his bare Back, well laid on, and be committed to the common Goal of the County, there to remain Twelve Months, without Bail or Mainprize.

And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in Force for the Term of Twelve Months, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Assembly, and no longer.

‡ CASPAR FETTER.

TO be sold, a very valuable Tract of Land, containing 600 Acres, in the South Part of Lancaster County, in the Township of Little Britain, 25 Miles from Christiana Bridge, 20 Miles from Charlestown, Maryland, and 10 Miles from a Landing on Susquehanna. The Land is well timbered, with young thriving Timber, and extremely well watered, a large Spring running through it, and Springs in every Field. There are four 40 Acre Fields, one 20 Acres, and three 10 Acre Fields cleared on the Premises. There are great Quantities of Mud, caused by the said Springs, which is extraordinary Manure for Land; but the Soil is naturally rich, and good for Pasture; and 20 Acres of fine Meadow, watered by a large Stream, near the Dwelling-house, which is two Stories high, built of Stone and good Lime; with a Malt-house, Still-house, and sundry other necessary Offices, and a large Orchard. The House is at present under a Licence for a Public-house, there being two large Roads crossing to the aforesaid Landing. At Half a Mile Distance is a good Stone Grist-mill, double geered, the House is 50 Feet by 32 Feet, two Stories high, very lately rebuilt, and done in the best Manner both for Merchant and Country Business; 30 Acres of fine Bottom cleared, which produces great Crops of the best English Grass; also a good Dwelling-house, and other Out-houses, with a large young bearing Orchard, and a fine Bottom, containing 150 Acres, fit for Meadow when cleared, and will produce Hops and Hemp. It will suit to divide into two good Plantations, between the Mill and Tavern, and will be sold altogether, or divided, as suits the Purchaser, who, paying One Third Part of the Purchase-money down, may have Credit for the Remainder, giving sufficient Security. The Title indisputable, For further Particulars enquire of James Coultas, Esq; in Bleckley, Mr. James Fulton, Merchant, in Philadelphia, or the Subscriber, living on the Premises,

Tbctf. JAMES GILLESPIE.

Baltimore County, October 20, 1763.

TO be SOLD, two Tracts of Land in said County, one containing near 200 Acres, situated on a Branch of Deer-creek, about 20 Miles from the Head of Bush-River, and 12 from Peach Bottom Ferry, on Susquehannah River, about 30 or 35 Acres cleared, 7 or 8 of which is Timothy and Clover Meadow, more may be made, a good Part of it good Hasel Bottom, with a choice Mill Seat, which may easily be built, as Stones and Timber are very convenient to the Place, and the Water almost dams up by Nature; with a square Log House, pailed Garden, bearing Orchard, &c.

The other containing 128 Acres, ten Miles from the Head of Bush River, on the Road leading from thence to York, and as several Roads meet thereon, is very fit for a Store or Tavern, with a good bearing Orchard, and some Building thereon, and a good Deal of Meadow Ground. Both Tracts abound with choice Springs, and may be entered on in April. The Purchaser paying Part in Hand, may have Time for the Remainder. For further Particulars apply to the Subscriber, on the last mentioned Premises, ¶ JOHN REILY.

N. B. If the above Tracts are not sold before February, they are to be rented.

By Captain MACKEY, from Londonderry; and Captain DUNLAP, from Leith; both in ſhort Paſſages, we have the following Advices, viz.

PARIS, Auguſt 5.

THE Prince of Conde is ſetting out to convene the States of Burgundy and Breſſe, and the Duke of Britanny to aſſemble thoſe of that Province. We doubt not that theſe faithful ſubjects will uſe their beſt endeavours to ſupply the preſſing exigencies of the ſtate; the ſubjects of this kingdom, overloaded with taxes of every kind, being almoſt in every part of it incapable of bearing up under the burthen, eſpecially in thoſe unhappy countries, which hurricanes and hail have laid waſte, whoſe inhabitants have been forced to go to other provinces to get their bread.

Spa, Auguſt 18. By advices juſt received, we hear that the Elector of Mentz died laſt Monday morning, the 15th, of a fever, after an illneſs of 14 days.

Hamburgh, Auguſt 12. Though the credit of the trading houſes of this city begins to revive, trade is ſtill in a languid ſtate. It is certain that four Merchants have failed; but to prevent more bankruptcies, ſeveral of the principal Merchants have ſubſcribed for a million and a half of bank marks, and will agree with the Merchants of Berlin for a new ſum. In the mean time our bank advances ſpecie on ingots of gold and ſilver, and even upon houſhold goods.

Amſterdam, Auguſt 19. Here is a ſcheme handed about to ſupport publick credit, as alſo ſome capital houſes in this city without money, and by that means to reſtore a general confidence upon the exchange of Amſterdam.

Conſtantinople, July 4. We hear from Aleppo, that the Six Brothers, Sader, Anthony, Diab, Marconnette, Dragoman and Barataire, have made a Bankruptcy of above Three Hundred Thouſand Piaſtres; the Engliſh, ſome Turkiſh Traders, and other European Merchants, are conſiderable Loſers by it. The French are but little concerned in the Affair.

Meſſina, July 15. The new Eruption of Mount Gibel, or Mount Etna, ſtill continues. The Roaring was heard very diſtinctly 20 Miles. From the 29th paſt to the 1ſt inſtant, the Mountain threw out a prodigious Quantity of very fine black Sand, which fell in a kind of a Fog, to the Diſtance of 25 Miles round, and darkened the Air ſo much, that in the Town of Catania, People could ſcarce ſee to walk the Streets.

Gibraltar, July 21. The Emperor of Morocco marched at the Head of his Army, from Mequinez into the mountainous Country, inhabited by the Sylocks, in order to oblige them to pay Tribute. After an obſtinate Engagement, which laſted two Days, and coſt the Emperor 7000 Men, he gained a compleat Victory. After which he marched to the Weſt, to recover a Town that has been long uſurped by the Algerines. He is ſpeedily expected at Tetuan, where there is no Doubt he will levy as much Money as he can.

Leghorn, July 25. Our letters from Corſica bring accounts, that in the affair of the 18th, under the walls of Furiani, the Genoeſe loſt upwards of 200 men. General Matra's Nephew was mortally wounded in it. However, the Republic appears ſo little diſpoſed to deſiſt from the Corſican war, that ſhe has juſt ſent again a large convoy of warlike ſtores to Baſtia.

EDINBURGH, Auguſt 20.

All the Marine Officers, at preſent in Scotland, have received orders from the Admiralty, to repair to London immediately. The officers belonging to ſeveral marching regiments, abſent upon furlow, have likewiſe got orders to join their regiments without delay. Several of theſe gentlemen have accordingly ſet out, and the others are preparing to follow them as faſt as poſſible.

We hear from different quarters of the country, that the harveſt is almoſt univerſally begun, and that there is a great appearance of a fine crop of all kinds of grain.

Extract of a letter from London, Auguſt 18.

"All the ſhip carpenters on board the merchant ſhips at Portſmouth have been taken from thence, and ſet to work in the King's yard at that place."

On Saturday her Majeſty's happy delivery was celebrated here by the firing of guns, the ringing of bells, and every other demonſtration of joy.

LONDON, Auguſt 18.

Yeſterday there was a great levee at St James's, to compliment his Majeſty on the ſafe delivery of the Queen, and the birth of a Prince.

On Tueſday an expreſs was ſent to the Lord-Mayor, at Fonthill in Wiltſhire, for his Lordſhip to come to town to hold a Court of Common Council, which is ſummoned for to-morrow, in order to pay the City's reſpectful congratulations to his Majeſty, upon the birth of another Prince.

It is ſaid that the Right Hon. the Lord-Mayor will go up with the addreſs in the grandeſt manner poſſible, accompanied with an additional band of muſic, kettle-drums, &c.

Yeſterday was obſerved as an holiday at all the public offices, in honour of the young Prince's birth, in conſequence of orders ſent on Tueſday night for that Purpoſe.

Yeſterday Admiral Rodney waited on his Majeſty, and was moſt graciouſly received.

The Stationers, Printers, and Bookſellers at Utrecht in Holland, kept, on Tueſday, the 2d inſtant, their grand Jubilee of one hundred years, to commemorate the invention of printing; on which occaſion there were illuminations and other demonſtrations of joy.

Extract of a letter from Portſmouth, Aug. 16.

"This morning 30 cheſts of money, brought home in the Trent man of war from the Havannah, were ſent from hence to London in two waggons, eſcorted by a party of marines."

The Alexander, Davidſon, from Jamaica; and the Temple, Hatch, from Boſton, are arrived at Dover.

Accounts from Dublin ſay that great diſturbances ſtill continued among the Weavers in that city; and that the Maſter Weavers had ordered a meeting, to conſider of legal means for redreſſing grievances, and putting a ſtop to the importation of French goods, either directly from France, or by way of Cheſter.

His Pruſſian Majeſty ſeems determined to keep up his Army as it was during the War; becauſe the Peace does not appear durable. It is certain this enterpriſing Monarch has announced Vengeance againſt the Dutch, who have conſtructed a large Dyke, at the Expence of 50,000l. Sterling, on that Part of Eaſt Frieſland which belongs to his Majeſty, whereby they can lay that Country under Water, ſix Feet deep, in a few Hours.

Auguſt 22. Private letters from Paris, by the laſt French mail, adviſe, that it was ſtrongly reported there that the Empreſs of Ruſſia was confined, and her ſon placed on the throne.

According to letters from the Hague, a treaty of commerce is on the carpet, between Great-Britain, and the Republic of the United Provinces, the baſis of which is to be the treaties made in 1667 and 1674, and thereby all differences between the two reſpective Eaſt-India Companies are to be compromiſed and adjuſted.

Auguſt 23. They write from Hamburgh, of the 16th inſtant, that on the preceding day two very conſiderable Merchants houſes there ſtopt payment; and that from Stockholm they had no favourable news.

Extract of a letter from Citadella, in the iſland of Minorca, July 25.

"Since this iſland has again been put into the poſſeſſion of the Engliſh, merchants flock here from all parts, particularly Jews from Leghorn and Gibraltar. Our market is already greatly overſtocked with goods, and large quantities are daily expected from England; ſo that it is to be feared ſome muſt ſell at a loſs. The truth of the matter is, the Jews in a manner monopolize the whole trade; but it is to be hoped, when matters are better ſettled, this will be remedied."

On Saturday laſt an expreſs arrived from Holland, with an account of ſeveral more bankruptcies there.

Letters from Cadiz, by Yeſterday's French mail, bring an account of the arrival of the Flota, with near 6,000,000 ſterling on board in ſpecie and merchandize.

By the laſt letters from Cadiz, orders had been diſpatched to Ferrol and Carthagena, for the building of a number of frigates, from 20 to 30 and 40 guns, on which a great many extra hands will be employed.

Sunday morning, about ten, the Right Honourable Sir Charles Wyndham, Earl of Egremont, was ſeized with a third fit of apoplexy, and continued all day ſpeechleſs, and about nine at night expired. He was Baron of Cockermouth, and Baronet, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Cumberland, and one of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council. He was ſon of the late Sir William Wyndham, Bart. by Catherine, ſecond daughter of Charles, the great Duke of Somerſet; and on the death of his father, in 1740, ſucceeded to the title of Baronet. On the death of his uncle, Algernoon, Duke of Somerſet, Feb. 8, 1750, he inherited the title of Earl of Egremont. His Lordſhip married (March 12, 1751) Alicia Maria, daughter of George Lord Carpenter, by whom he had iſſue, George, now Earl of Egremont, born December 7, 1751, two other ſons, and three daughters.

This noble Lord derives his deſcent from Ailwardus, an eminent Saxon, who, ſoon after the conqueſt, being poſſeſſed of lands at Wymondham, now called Wyndham, in the county of Norfolk, aſſumed his name from thence. George, the preſent Earl, is the third Earl of Egremont.

It is ſaid that Lord Egremont will be ſucceeded, as Secretary for the ſouthern department, by the Earl of Shelburne.

At the Court of Common-council held this day, it was unanimouſly reſolved to addreſs his Majeſty on the birth of another Prince; and a committee of ſix Aldermen and twelve Commoners were appointed, who, after withdrawing ſome time, returned with a very loyal and dutiful addreſs. The Sheriffs afterwards waited on his Majeſty, to know when he would receive the addreſs, and his Majeſty was pleaſed to appoint to-morrow afternoon at two.

Extract of a letter from Portſmouth, Aug. 22.

"Since my laſt arrived at Spithead the Oxford, Alcide, Emerald, and Hawke (Engliſh ſhips) with the Conqueſtadore, Soverenado, Aquilon, and Rena (Spaniſh prizes) all from the Havannah.

"On Saturday General Keppel came on ſhore, and ſet out immediately for London in a poſt-chaiſe."

The Bankruptcies in Holland are eſtimated at Thirty-two Millions of Dutch Florins, at 2,566,000 l. Sterling, which is a great Blow upon the Bank of Amſterdam; and has alſo greatly affected that of Hamburgh, where great Care is taken to ſupport the Bank Currency.

The Bank of Amſterdam was eſtabliſhed in 1609, much upon the Footing of the Banco of Venice, and is, properly ſpeaking, a perpetual Caſh for Traders. Its Fund has amounted to ſuch prodigious Sums, as ſometimes to have been computed at no leſs than 3000 Tons of Gold, valued at 100,000 Florins per Ton, amounting in the whole to near 42 Millions Sterling.

It is by this Bank that the City of Amſterdam upholds itſelf with ſo much Splendor; and, without diſturbing the Liberty of Trade, makes itſelf Miſtreſs of the greateſt Part of the Money of its Inhabitants; for no Man conceives it a Diminution of his Wealth, for having his Subſtance in Bank.

The whole City is bound to make good the Money depoſited in this Bank, and the Treaſure is ſecured under four different Locks, the Keys of which are kept by four of the principal Magiſtrates.

A Gentleman, lately arrived from the Eaſt-Indies, confirms the former Account of the Dutch having exerciſed great Cruelty upon the Inhabitants of two Iſlands in that Part of the World.

There are ſome Letters in Town which adviſe, that the Plague has abſolutely made its Progreſs ſome Miles beyond the Frontiers of Hungary, and carried off a conſiderable Number of People.

Friday arrived at Plymouth the Tyger, a Spaniſh Man of War, from the Havannah, in 38 Days; the Hampton-Court Man of War was then in Sight; ſhe parted from the Orford, &c. on Monday 7-Night.

On the 11th Inſt. about half an Hour after eleven at Night, there was ſuch a Storm at Bruſſels, that the Inhabitants thought the End of the World was come. Amidſt the moſt dreadful Peals of Thunder, the Lightning was ſuch, that the Heavens ſeemed all on Fire, and the City every Moment in Danger of being involved in the general Conflagration. To this Thunder and Lightning ſucceeded a Storm of Hail, which laſted eight or ten Minuets. The whole Storm continued two Hours. The Bigneſs of the Hail-ſtones was that of a large Nut; ſome were as big as a Hen's Egg. It may eaſily be conceived what Havock was made; all the Fruits of the Earth, the Verdure and Herbs, are cut and beat to the Ground; even the Trees are as bare of Leaves and Fruit, as in the Month of January. The Windows of one Half of the Number of the public Edifices, Churches, Palaces, and private Dwelling-houſes, at Bruſſels, are broke, and the Roofs, particularly thoſe of Slate, much damaged. Many of the Inhabitants died, and others are very ill by the Fright. It is remarkable, that the Quarter of the Town called Le Rivage, ſcarce ſuffered any thing. The Cloud which ſent out this Storm, was rather long than broad; its Direction was from Halle towards Mechlin. The Damage done to the Windows only, is a very conſiderable Object. The Magiſtrates have, on this Occaſion, given Permiſſion to Glaziers, who are not Freemen, to work in the City for two Months.

Auguſt 27. They write from Conſtantinople of the 16th ult. that the deſigned Turkiſh Miniſter to the King of Pruſſia, was then upon the point of ſetting out from thence for Berlin. The preſents which he was to take with him for his Pruſſian Majeſty, were valued at 100,000 piaſtres; they conſiſt of twelve very fine Arabian horſes, a moſt curious ſpacious tent ornamented with pearl and gold fringes, a ſabre richly ſet with diamonds, two exquiſite fine carpets, twelve pieces of gold and ſilver India ſtuffs, &c.

We are told that two battalions of foot, of 1000 men each, are forthwith to be raiſed, in order to be ſent to North-America; and alſo an additional number of 500 men, to replace the ſick and lame, which are ſhortly expected home from thence.

The Elector of Mentz, whoſe death is mentioned lately in the London Gazette, was choſen to that Electorate on the 5th of July laſt, on the death of Count d'Oſtain Engelheim, and died on the 15th of Auguſt, ſo that he has enjoyed his dignity but about ſix weeks. He was baron Breidback of Burriſheim, Great Dean of that Chapter. The election is in the Chapter. He is temporal ſovereign of the country, the revenues whereof are upwards of 100,000 l. ſterling per annum.

Part of a Letter from Paris, dated Auguſt 22.

"The affair of Mr. Wilkes, no doubt, has made much noiſe. The truth is this; he cauſed himſelf to be put under an arreſt, to prevent a duel with Capt. Forbes, a Scots officer."

On Wedneſday there were letters received from Mr. Wilkes at Paris, that he was then in good health, and that he propoſed being in town ſome time next week; ſo that the report of his being there aſſaſſinated appears to be without foundation.

The following perſons are talked of for Secretary of State, in the room of the Right Hon. the Earl of Egremont, viz. Mr. Pitt, Charles Townſhend, Lord Shelburne, Lord Egmont, Lord Sandwich, Lord Barrington, and Lord Harcourt.

We hear that a monument is to be erected on the north ſide of Weſtminſter-Abbey, to the memory of the brave Adm. Boſcawen.

Wedneſday two eminent houſes of this city ſtopped payment; but yeſterday one of them opened.

The French, during the late war, built, at an expence of a million and a half ſterling, 300 flat-bottomed boats, capable of carrying 75,000 troops, with their arms, &c. including 15,000 cavalry. Theſe boats, we hear, they have lately ſold by auction at Dunkirk, for old timber. Some of them ſold for about forty guineas.

St. James's, Auguſt 25.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious SOVEREIGN,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt gladly embrace this joyful occaſion of approaching your ſacred Perſon; with our ſincereſt and warmeſt congratulations on the ſafe delivery of the Queen, and the auſpicious birth of another Prince; firmly truſting, that every increaſe of your Royal Family will prove an additional ſecurity to our Religion, and that Great Charter of Liberty, which, in conſequence of the glorious revolution, your illuſtrious houſe was choſen to defend.

Your Majeſty's ever loyal and faithful Citizens of London, exceeded by none of your ſubjects in honeſt and anxious zeal for your Majeſty's happineſs, and the glory and proſperity of your reign, rejoice in every event which augments your Majeſty's domeſtic felicity.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to intreat your Majeſty's acceptance of our faithful aſſurances, that we will, at all times, be ready, chearfully to render to your Majeſty every inſtance of allegiance and duty, which affectionate and loyal ſubjects can pay to the beſt of Princes.

Signed by order of Court, JAMES HODGES.

His Majeſty's moſt gracious anſwer.

"I thank you for this loyal addreſs; and for the ſatisfaction you expreſs on the increaſe of my family. The religion and liberties of my people always have been, and ever ſhall be, the conſtant objects of my care and attention. I ſhall at all times depend upon the aſſurances, which you give me, of your allegiance and duty."

Dublin, Aug. 2. It is computed, that by the idleneſs and riots of the Hearts of Oak, the loſs to this nation is 4000 l. a day, which muſt fall very heavy on the wives and children of theſe miſled people.

Londonderry, July 24. Our city is become a city of refuge, for there is ſcarce a Rector or Tythe-Farmer within 40 miles, but what is come to us, for fear of the people called Hearts of Oak: They are become ſo very numerous, that they are computed to be above 40,000. The main body is now at Newtownſtewart and Omagh, and there are ſeveral parties gone to different places of the country. Our Mayor had two letters from them this day, poſted in Strabane, telling him that they would pay him a viſit with 15000; and as they were informed he was putting the city in a poſture of defence, they did not mean to come within cannon ſhot, but would ſurround the town till he would ſend out the clergy. Our officers and ſoldiers have been buſy all this afternoon, placing the cannon where they will be moſt uſeful if there ſhould be occaſion for them; but my opinion is, they will not trouble us.

July 29. On Monday laſt a party of the army met at Newtownſtewart, about ſixteen miles from hence, a very numerous party of the Oak Boys; they attacked the army in a moſt irregular manner, on which the ſoldiers returned the fire, and killed ſix of them on the ſpot, wounded many more, and took forty priſoners, who are now in goal. This day three principal men of the party were brought and lodged in the priſon, and a party of the army marched to Dungwen, about ſixteen miles from hence, in order to bring in more priſoners. There are three companies of foot here. The militia of this town are very formidable; Captain William Hamilton, one of the Repreſentatives in the late parliament for this city, hath aſſembled his company (upwards of 100 men, well-armed) and they have relieved the army by mounting guard for them, and doing their duty in this city. This day another company commanded by Capt. Darcus have appeared, and alſo do duty here.

Monaghan, July 30. There has been another engagement between the Oak Boys and a troop of horſe at a moſt remarkable place called Watled-bridge, in the county of Fermanagh, on the ſame ſpot that King William's army defeated King James's, with the loſs of 6000 of his troops. Mr. Coote being informed that a great number of the Oak Boys were to aſſemble on Wedneſday laſt between Red Hill and Watled-bridge, took a troop with him from Clowniſh, a Corporal, and eight ſoldiers, with ſeveral of his own friends: They ſet out for Watled-bridge, and arrived there about two in the afternoon, when they were met by a great number of Oak Boys, armed with different weapons, and addreſſed himſelf in the moſt polite and humane manner to the advanced party to diſperſe, but they perſiſted; but upon the appearance of the troops they all diſperſed, and ran off, except about 100 of them; one of them was ſo raſh as to fire a ſhot, which was returned by the troops, who killed ſeven, and the reſt ran away as faſt as poſſible; but the ground being marſhy on each ſide of the road, the horſe could not purſue them, but the foot followed very cloſely, wounded 14 of them, took about 30 priſoners, and carried them to Cavan goal.

Armagh, July 30. John Bond, Eſq; who ſo remarkably ſignalized himſelf on the landing of Thurot, has now, at the head of a party of Hale's light dragoons, at three o'clock in the morning, ſurprized a thouſand Oak Boys, took the two ringleaders or captains, viz. Glaſs and Williamſon, priſoners, and lodged them in Armagh goal; the engagement was very ſmart for ſome time, but happily attended with diſperſing them all.

ST. JAGO DE LA VEGA (in JAMAICA) Sept. 17.

On Wedneſday laſt, about two of the Clock in the Afternoon, the Magazine of FORT AUGUSTA, having upwards of 2500 Barrels of Gun-powder in it, was blown up. This melancholy Accident is believed to be occaſioned by Lightning, which was obſerved to have flaſhed, attended with a loud Clap of Thunder, about the inſtant of Time preceding the Exploſion; the Doors of the Magazine being then ſhut. The Exploſion was ſo great, that not one Stone of the Magazine or Foundation of it is to be ſeen, but the Ground where it was ſituated is ſo ſunk as to form a large Pit, about ten or fifteen feet deep, in which the Water is ſprung up. The Violence of the Concuſſion was ſuch, that it threw down the Officers Barracks, a fine new Brick Building, having Apartments for about fourteen Officers, and alſo the Houſe for the Commander of the Fort, and the Earth was felt in this Town to ſhake in the ſame Manner as in a ſmart Earthquake. Captain Talbot, Captain Lieutenant Dunbar, and Enſign Keating, of the 43d Regiment, were killed, and found buried in the Ruins of the Barracks, ſeveral of the Soldiers quartered there, and other People, were alſo killed, to the Number of 30, beſides Negroes, and many others were wounded; ſo that its computed the Number of killed, wounded and miſſing, amounts to near 100. The damage ſuſtained by this Accident is computed to be near 25 or 30,000 l. beſides the loſs of the Powder. Very providentially the Colonel and ſeveral other Officers happened that day to be at Port Royal, draughting Men from the 74th Regiment for the 43d, by which Means they happily eſcaped.

Yeſterday died here, at the Houſe of George Ramſay, Eſq; Thomas Monſel, a Lieut. in the 74th Regiment, by the Wounds he received at the late unfortunate Accident at Fort Auguſta.

BOSTON, October 17.

We hear from London, that the Thoughts of ſending a Biſhop to America was wholly laid aſide.

NEW-YORK, October 20.

On Monday laſt his Excellency Sir JEFFERY AMHERST, with ſome other Officers, embarked for Albany.

We hear that His Majeſty's Ships are ſo ſtationed as to keep up a Chain of Communication from one End to the other of the Britiſh Dominions in America, and to keep continually cruiſing, ſo as effectually to cruſh the Contraband Trade,

[As all Parts of His Majesty's Dominions are equally entitled to His paternal Care, and we have Reason to think Him disposed to dispense the Blessings of a just and wise Government impartially to all His Subjects, considering them as one People, however remote their Situation from His Presence; As the Welfare, the Strength, and Security of the whole, consists in the equitable Distribution of Advantages to all Parts of the Government; and as we are characteristically a trading Nation; there can be no Doubt but that, upon a proper Representation to His Majesty and His Ministry, we shall have every just Cause of Complaint removed, and be allowed all the Advantages in Trade that we could reasonably ask;---and what can we desire more?

It is greatly to be wished that some System of Trade might be discovered, that it would be equally the Interest of all Parts of the British Dominions to adhere to;---and this seems to me to be not impracticable; for why should we not be beneficial to each other in our trading, as well as our social Capacities? In Society we find our Wants and Necessities are mutually supplied by the Superfluities of each other.---As the British Dominions are so extensive, so different in Climate, Produce, and Manufactures, surely the Business of every Part might be so appropriated, that each might have the full Use of their natural Advantages, without Restraint. Prohibitions upon Trade shew a Defect in Government, and plainly call for an Amendment; and if, instead of acting contrary to the Laws in being, every one would exert himself to have them amended, and made just and equitable; we might, probably, in a little Time, obtain such a System of trading Laws, that none would have an Inclination to violate them.]

October 24. A Schooner from Piscataqua for Philadelphia, loaded with Fish, Oyl, &c. sunk last Thursday, about 10 Leagues to the Eastward of Sandy-Hook. The Crew came up to Town last Saturday Night, and took their Passages to Rhode-Island Yesterday in the Packet.

The Pallas, Miller, from Rotterdam, with Palatines, for Virginia, was at Deal the 18th of August.

PHILADELPHIA, October 27.

On Saturday last the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province adjourned to the Sixteenth of January next. During their Sitting the following Laws were passed, viz.

An ACT for granting to his Majesty the Sum of Twenty-four Thousand Pounds, for the Defence and Protection of this Province, and for other Purposes therein mentioned.

An ACT to prohibit the Selling of Guns, Gunpowder, and other Warlike Stores, to the Indians.

An ACT for regulating the Officers and Soldiers in the Pay of this Province.

Extract of a Letter from Carlisle, October 18, 1763.

"Our small Army is returned from the Expedition against the Great Island, which, on their Arrival there, the sixth Instant, they found to have been abandoned by the Enemy about twelve or fifteen Days before, as they imagined. On examining, they found the Indians had taken their Route up the River, and carried with them their Cattle and Horses.

"The Colonel, being informed of a small Town, called Myonaghquea, about 30 Miles up the River, and imagining the Enemy might have encamped there, with a View of carrying off their Corn, and other Produce, which they found at the Island in large Quantities, and in good Order, sent some Spies to reconnoitre the Situation of that Place, whilst the Body was employed in destroying the Corn, Beans, Pompions, &c. which was effectually done, by cutting down, battering, and casting into the River.

"In the Afternoon of the Seventh, two of the Spies returned, having discovered four Indians, about 16 Miles up, coming down the River in Canoes (who having likewise discovered the Spies, left their Vessels, and fled) and by Break of Day, next Morning, the Colonel, with 150 Men, including Officers, set out up the River, and after a difficult March, through excessive bad Road, the last seven Miles of which they were just at the Heels of the Indian Spies, that had been sent out by the Enemy, our People arrived at Five in the Evening within three Quarters of a Mile of the Town, from whence they observed several Indians running among the Houses, and, from the Appearance of the Buildings, apprehended they were fortified, or at least resolved to make a Stand, and accordingly surrounded the Town, and rushed in; but the Indians had made their Escape, leaving their Victuals warm on Pieces of Bark, used by them for Tables.---Here they found a Quantity of Corn, that had been carried up from the Island; Eels and Pompions; a Number of Swine, three Black Cattle, and Seven Horses; with a Variety of Implements, taken most probably from our Frontier; and, by all the Discoveries they could make, the Body of the Indians had left that Place about ten Days before their Arrival.---To pursue farther, it was judged would be in vain, as it would be impracticable to overtake them, thus alarmed of our Design. From thence, therefore, they returned to the Island, and the whole of the little Plunder they got, amounting to above Seventy Pounds, was sold at Vendue, and divided among the private Men who went up the River, and those who remained as a Guard at the Camp.

"The Damage done the Enemy in this Expedition, is the having destroyed seven or eight Towns, and at least upwards of 3000 Bushels of Corn, with other Vegetables for Food. And such an additional Terror is undoubtedly thrown into the Minds of the Savages, that it is not probable any of the Residenters on the West Branch will tarry on this Side of the Allegheny; and we may hope, under God, for some more Quiet on this hitherto harrassed Frontier.---The Course the Indians had taken from the Upper Town, appeared to be towards Venango, or Toby's Creek, there being no other Town on the West Branch but Shinga Clamoose, and that not inhabited for some Time past.

"From Winchester we have Intelligence, which may, I think, be depended on, That a Party of Virginia Rangers, amounting to Sixty, being out on Jackson's River, discovered a small Party of Indians, whom they pursued, till, being drawn into an Ambush, they were fired on from both Sides by a large Body of Indians, and obliged to fly; and of the whole Party Twenty-one had only come in when the Person that brought the Account came away; the rest, it is thought, being killed, or made Prisoners."

On Saturday last some Officers and Soldiers arrived here from Pittsburgh; the Garrison all well when they left the Fort; nor did they meet with any Interruption on the Road from the Indians.

On Tuesday last we received the following melancholy Advices from Northampton County, viz. That on Sunday, the 16th Instant, the Laghowexin Settlement, on a Branch of the Delaware, betwixt Wyoming and the Minisinks, was cut off by the Indians, when nine People were killed, and four wounded, one of which, and two Boys, had got in to Upper Smithfield: That on Thursday last a Party of the Enemy rushed into a House in Allemingle Township, and tomahawked the Man, his Wife, and four Children, and a Fifth is said to be missing: And that on Saturday the following Persons were killed in a Flat, going over to the Jerseys, viz. Stephen Brink, Garret Brink, Esther Brink, Peter Vangarda, Benjamin Racer, and a Negroe Woman; and Jacob Shoemaker, and Samuel Guin missing.---These People had moved their Families into the Jerseys, but had come over to milk their Cows, and were on their Return back again, when the Enemy fired on them.

The Number of Indians said to be about Twenty, who swam into the River, brought the Flat ashore, and scalped all the People, excepting the Negroe Woman.----The Man, Woman and Children, in Allemingle, were all likewise scalped, and cut and mangled in a most inhuman Manner.

And from Sussex County, in the Jerseys, we learn that the Indians have been seen in different Parts thereof; and that the Militia of that Province are out after them.

Extract of a Letter from Paxton, in Lancaster County, October 23.

"Our Party, under Captain Clayton, is returned from Wyoming, where they met with no Indians, but found the New-Englanders, who had been killed and scalped a Day or two before they got there; they buried the Dead, nine Men and a Woman, who had been most cruelly butchered; the Woman was roasted, and had two Hinges in her Hands, supposed to be put in red hot; and several of the Men had Awls thrust into their Eyes, and Spears, Arrows, Pitchforks, &c. sticking in their Bodies. They burnt what Houses the Indians left, and destroyed a Quantity of Indian Corn.---The Enemy's Tracks were up the River, towards Wighalousing."

On Tuesday Night, the 18th Instant, Mr. Kelso, of this City, and another Man, were attacked on the Highway, betwixt the Lower Ferry and Darby, by two Men, who demanded their Money; but, instead of delivering, they knocked down both the Rogues, and would have secured them, had not two others come up to their Assistance, one of whom snapt a Pistol at them, upon which they made the best of their Way to Town.

We are also informed, that some Attempts of the same Kind have been made on different Persons, near Town, since our last.

And Yesterday two Men were committed to the Goal of this City, against whom, we hear, there are strong Suspicions of being concerned with the Gang.

"Yesterday WILLIAM MANWAIRING, Esq; late Commander of His Majesty's Ship Arundel, died here, after a short Illness of ten Days, much regreted by those Persons honoured with his Acquaintance. From his general Character, it is concluded, His Majesty has lost a good Officer, the Publick a worthy Member of Society, and his Family an affectionate Friend."

To the Printers of the PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

GENTLEMEN,

As a Solution of the following Question may be of general Use in Navigation, your giving it a Place in your next Paper, will oblige your humble Servant,

October 17, 1763. NAUTICUS.

ON the 15th of August, 1763, being in or near the Longitude of 70° 00′ W. from London, and in North Latitude, the Sun's Altitude at 12′ past Nine o'Clock, and at 14′ past Twelve, was alike by a Watch, viz. 60° 30′; the Ship sailed during that Time 24′, 6 due West. The Latitude the Ship was in, and the true Time of Day the last Altitude was taken, is required?

IN Answer to the above, I find the Latitude is 35° 30′ North, at either of the Times; also that at 29′ 48″ past Ten in the Morning, and at 30′ 12″ past One o'Clock in the Afternoon, were the true Times when the Altitudes were taken, and the Watch too slow by the Space of 1h. 17′ 48″. This is the true Answer, and will stand the Test.

WHEREAS a certain John Carothers, of the Township of East Pennsborough, in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, obtained of Francis O'Neal, of Pikeland Township, Chester County, five Bonds, each bearing Date the 20th of May last; one of said Bonds for Fifty Pounds, payable this Fall; one other for the like Sum, payable next Spring; one other for Sixty-five Pounds, payable in May 1765; one other for the like Sum, payable in May 1766; and one other for the like Sum, payable in May 1767; all which were illegally obtained. These are therefore to forewarn all Persons from taking Assignments of any of said Bonds, as I will not pay them, for the Reasons aforesaid.

FRANCIS O'NEALL.

WAS lost, on Wednesday Morning (last Week) under the Court-house, a black Morocco Leather Pocket-Book, with a Steel Lock, the Ketch broke, and Fifty Shillings in Money, a Pair of Gold Ear-rings, with Bosses, likewise several Papers, of no Service to any but the Owner. Whoever has got the same, and will bring it to the New Printing-Office, or to the Subscriber, shall receive Three Pounds Reward, if returned with the Money, or Fifteen Shillings without. WILLIAM YOUNG.

N. B. It is desired whoever has it to bring it as soon as possible.

STRAYED out of a Pasture near the Lower Ferry Road, the 16th of last Month, a large red Cow, almost fat, with short Horns, and a brown Face, with a white Speck in it. Whoever takes her up, and gives Notice to the Subscriber, shall receive Fifteen Shillings Reward, and reasonable Charges, paid by WILLIAM NORTON.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

STOLEN from the Subscriber, on the 22d of this Instant, out of the Hog-Pen Lots, near the Center, a red roan Horse, about 5 Years old, 14 Hands 3 Inches high, has a long Snip down his Face, a white hind Foot, has a high Carriage, gallops fast, trots out of Hand, New-England bred, shod all round, and has been lately trimmed: Taken at the same Time, a half worn Saddle and Bridle, also a Flannel Pad and Saddle-Cloth. Whoever takes up and secures said Thief and Horse, so that they, or Horse only, may be had again, shall receive the above Reward, and all reasonable Charges, paid by me EDWARD FLUNDERS.

RUN away from the Subscriber, living in Manatawny, in Berks County, 3 Miles from Thomas Potts's Old Furnace, on the 8th of July last, a Negroe Man, named Henry, about 24 Years of Age, middle sized, and well set, has on each Side a Hole through his Nose, and one through each Ear; speaks neither English nor Dutch. He went away from the Brick-kiln, and had on a green Jacket and a Pair of Tow Trowsers, leaving his Hat and Shoes behind him. Whoever takes up and secures the said Negroe, so that his Master may have him again, shall have Thirty Shillings Reward, and reasonable Charges, paid by GEORGE ADAM WEIDNER.

N. B. All Masters of Vessels are forewarned to carry him off, at their Peril; and whoever in Town or Country harbours him, shall be dealt with according to Law.

To be LETT for a Term of Years, to an Innkeeper of Credit and good Character,

THE Tenement of Townside, most commodiously situated, and accommodated for the Purpose. It lies in the most direct Path North and South from one Colony through and to another, and shorter Distance by at least 8 or 9 Miles than any other Road. A Tavern has always been greatly wanted near the Spot, on Account of its being at a convenient Distance from both Warwick North, and the Widow Dockery's South, about 17 Miles. The Site is eminently beautiful, the Housing are abundantly sufficient for a well accustomed Tavern, with Cellars, Stable, Cow and Hen Houses, Kitchens, Meat Houses, &c. a well stocked Garden, hanging over Chester River, and 18 Acres of excellent Pasture, divided by Posts and Rails into many Lots. The Ferry, which, with great Cost, is just now shortened to less than a Stone's Cast, by Means of a Cause-way 16 Feet broad, and about 60 Rods in Length, with a Frame Landing and Skeow, will be also rented to the Tavern. This Place is also nobly situated for Trade; for many Years there was no other of any Account in these Parts till you come to Talbot, witness Sir E. C. Baronet, upon whose winding up his Clue here, the Trade became divided, and scattered about to New-town, George-town, Queen's-town, the Mills, the Traps and the Fairs, but Townside remains in the same Place, in a better Condition than when it flourished most; upon this Account I reserve to be rented to a Batchelor Merchant, what is compleatly convenient for his Purpose, viz. a very good Brick Store House, with barred Windows and Shutters, a Cellar throughout, Lodging Room, &c. above, Privilege of a Canoe Ferry for his Customers of Queen Ann's County, and Pasture and Stable Room for two Horses; the Ware-houses, Granary and Wharff, which a Vessel of 2000 Bushels may lie close to and load. The Store and the Inn will be of mutual Advantage to each other.

If a Merchant Housekeeper should chuse a Lease of all Townside, he may have it, and a Tavern may be erected in Queen Ann's County; as I expect to be ready in the Fall to remove to my Farm, in Queen Ann's, either of the Premises may then be entered upon.----I suppose we have been sufficiently particular, and refer the rest to Treaty. H. CALLISTER.

FORTY SHILLINGS Reward.

Birmingham, September 16, 1763.

RUN away, last Night, from the Subscriber, living in Birmingham Township, Chester County, a Dutch Servant Lad, named Lawrence Carshner, of a pale Complexion, about 16 Years old, speaks good English; is of a small Stature, for the Age; has a sore Head, from his Crown back, and the Hair lately pretty much cut about the Sore; has a Scar on his upper Lip, which causes it to hang a little; Had on, and took with him, a striped Linsey Jacket, one Ditto, without Sleeves, flaxen Shirt and Trowsers, the Trowsers patch'd; a new Felt Hat, and old Shoes, if any. His Parents (Michael and Margaret Schwinken) are living, and it is supposed he will make towards them. Whoever takes up and secures said Servant in any Goal, and gives Notice to his Master, so that he may have him again, shall receive the above Reward, and reasonable Charges, paid by CALEB BRINTON.

N. B. All Masters of Vessels and others are forbid to harbour, or carry him off, at their Peril. W.
